For Lasting Piano
Satisfaction—Buy a Chickering

There are many pianos that will give you pleasure and satisfaction for awhile. But will they last?
Will they give you the same pleasure twenty years hence that you get from them today? When you buy a Chickering your pride of ownership will increase with the years. You will have an instrument that will become a part of your most intimate home life—a valued possession that will not only bring joy to you but to your children and your children's children.

New Styles in Chickering Pianos

Never was a better time to buy a Chickering Piano. We are now showing the new Chickering style "Z"—a superb grand of new proportions—also the handsome "Baby Upright" in Circeanian walnut, mahogany and other woods. The Chickering Piano, like all other pianos in our stock, will be sold on easy, comfortable payments. If you are unable to visit the

MONASTIR SURRENDERS.

Western Stronghold Falls Without a Blow.

Turks Have Plenty of Guns, but No Discipline.

Albania Asks Independence from Powers.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)

BEIGRADE, Nov. 18.—The Turkish fortress of Monastir surrendered this afternoon to the Serbian troops. Fifty thousand Turkish soldiers and three generals laid down their arms.

The possession of the heights commanding Monastir by Serbian troops under Crown Prince Alexander rendered the fortress untenable.

Fethi Pasha, former Turkish Minister to Belgrade, was one of the first to hand over his sword.

Monastir has been surrounded by Greek troops for several days, while Greek troops coming from the south had cut off the Turkish line of retreat to Ochrida. On Saturday the Serbian troops throughout the day and night succeeded in capturing two important heights commanding the city. Then they advanced through the morass upon the inner fortifications which surrendered today.

Monastir was the headquarters of the Sixth Turkish Army Corps commanded by Fethi Pasha, but many other Turkish troops fleeing from surrounding towns which had been captured by the Serbians concentrated there. David Pasha, the commander of the Seventh Turkish Army Corps, went there with many of his soldiers after the fall of Uskub to the Serbians.

It was thought that the Turkish troops would be able to stand a lengthy siege in Monastir, but it is evident that the army was totally disorganized and that provisions were only recently called to the colors. Monastir occupied a capital position for defense. It is the market center for the entire district and has a population of 45,000, about one-half Christians.

TURKS DISORGANIZED.

Have Plenty of Guns and Ammunition, but Lack Cohesion and Efficient Leadership.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)

PARIS, Nov. 18.—A picture of the disorganization in the Turkish army is drawn by the war correspondent of the Matin at Hadjuk, the Turkish headquarters of the lines of the Tchataldja.

"Col. Lehman, a German officer who has just taken over command in the Turkish army, declares he did not find a single gun in place. The Turks have plenty of guns and ammunition. They have German cannons and also French cannons taken from the Serbians. The Serbians began. Three French guns were seen lying in the mud at the Hadjuk railroad depot rust-ridden and useless.

"The total of the Turkish forces is estimated at 15,000 men, but there is a complete lack of unity among the commanders, and organization of any sort is absent. The commander-in-chief does not leave his headquarters where he will not receive anybody. The staff officers of the Turkish army themselves cannot be seen out after 10 o'clock in the morning.

"If things go on as they are today the Bulgarians will not find any Turkish troops to fight—they will be dead from cholera and typhoid."

ALBANIANS ASK INDEPENDENCE

OPPOSE BALKAN AMBITIONS.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 18.—A memorial urging the great powers to secure Albania's national and political independence was presented today by a deputation of Albanians to the foreign embassies and the Turkish foreign office. The Albanians declare they are disgusted by the political aims of the Balkan federation and will not admit any change in the present territorial standing of Turkey in Europe of a nature to prejudice their rights.

NAZIM PASHA REPORTS VICTORY

BEATS BACK BALKAN ATTACK.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief at Tchataldja, sent a long report to the Turkish War Office at Constantinople on Sunday night, recording his success over the Bulgarian attackers, according to a news agency dispatch. He says:

"The enemy was beaten, losing over 1000 killed and wounded, in addition to three battalions captured with the whole of their officers."

PRECAUTION AGAINST CHOLERA.

Public Health Service of United States Draws Lines Tighter on Atlantic Coast.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The public health service is drawing tighter its lines of precaution on the Atlantic Coast because of the appearance of cholera in the sons of the Balkan war. While Surgeon-General Blue does not regard the danger to the United States as serious at the present time, all vessels from the Mediterranean will be rigidly inspected. Vessels sailing for the United States from ports of Turkey which do not touch Naples will be closely scrutinized upon their arrival in this country.

GEORGARIS STILL LIVES.

SO WIRE HIS PARTNER.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Reports received in Omaha today that a Chicago Greek banker, Angelos Georcaris, had been executed in Thracian desertion, were ridiculed by Georcaris' partners here. "We have received several telegrams from Angelos Georcaris and two came today, one from Angelos himself, saying he was leaving Patras on the steamer Frantz Josef and would arrive in New York

November 20," said F. G. Papakostas, one of his partners. "There can be no truth in the report that he has been executed under martial law, for he was not eligible to the Greek army," he added. The Omaha report was that Georcaris had deserted from the army and had been captured and condemned to death.

STRIKERS DEFY LAW.

Governor of West Virginia Compelled to Order More Militia to Coal Regions to Restore Order.

(BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)

CHARLESTON (W. Va.) Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] That conditions of anarchy prevail in Ekadale and several hundred laborers there are unwilling to recognize any law, is the report brought to Gov. Glasscock today. Additional militia will be sent to the coal-miners' strike zone.

Five persons, three of them women, stole a hand car at Ekadale and proceeded to a point outside the military district, from which they opened fire toward Ekadale. It was arrested by the militia and will be sent before the military court which will convene today.

John Stehl and John Wister, whom "Mother" Jones is alleged to have accompanied to Washington to file a complaint of peonage against coal operators and labor agents in connection with the strike-breakers in the Kanawha field, are said to be suffering from gunshot wounds, believed to have been inflicted in the battle between strike and rally policemen at Cabin Creek Junction.

CLANCY FALLS IN FAINT

AT SIGHT OF M'MANIGAL.

Escape of David Caplan and His Family from Justice

and Retribution Also Told to Jury in the Trial in Indianapolis of Forty-five Union Men — Oscar Lawler and Others from Los Angeles on the Stand.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] How O. A. Tveitmo and Anton Johansson aided David Caplan who assisted J. B. McNamara in the preparation of the Los Angeles Times explosion, to join his wife and children and then escape from California, was told on the witness stand in the trial of the dynamite cases today, and also the story of Eugene Clancy's admission and how he fainted when he was confronted in a lawyer's office with Orrie McManigal. He was unconscious so long that those present became frightened and a hypodermic was administered before he could be restored.

CAPLAN'S ESCAPE.

The escape of David Caplan was described by Malcolm Loughhead, an employee of a taxicab company. He said his employer, in July, 1911, ordered him to take a car to the office of O. A. Tveitmo and when he arrived Anton Johansson got in and gave him directions where to go. A little distance the party picked up another man with dark mustache and a knip and they drove about five feet ten inches high. They went south and then northeast and came to a canyon, where he was ordered to stop. Johansson left the car and soon returned with a woman and two children, a boy and girl, apparently 4 and 8 years of age.

Once he heard the woman called "Flora," but that was the only time she was addressed by her name. He took the party, consisting of Johansson, the strange man, the woman and two children, to Reno, Nev., where they were in time to catch the Overland Limited train for Chicago which the parties immediately boarded. As they left the car Johansson gave the driver a letter to Tveitmo, which he carried when he reached San Francisco.

The man picked up soon after leaving the car to the fact that McNamara had offices, was David Caplan and the woman and little boy and girl were his wife and children. McNamara, last that has been seen of any of them.

LAWLER A WITNESS.

Oscar Lawler, special assistant Attorney-General in connection with the Los Angeles dynamite cases, was a witness today and told of conversation with Eugene Clancy and J. E. Munsey, and of the fact that he had housed J. B. McNamara after the Times explosion or that he even knew him. Lawler called his attention to the fact that McNamara had identified a photograph of J. B. McNamara as that of a man who had stopped at her house under the name of John J. McNamara, who said he was willing to tell all he knew. He admitted he went from Salt Lake to Los Angeles soon after the Times explosion in order to learn something of the sentiment of the people toward the perpetrators of the outrage and he also went to see Clancy at San Francisco. He made these trips under direction of J. J. McNamara, who was his brother in law.

LOS ANGELES TESTIMONY.

Arthur Veltch, Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles, said Clancy admitted to him on December 18, 1911, that he was J. B. McNamara at Seattle prior to the Times explosion and that J. B. told him he was out "blowing up scab jobs" and was out to clean up the coast.

At the Los Angeles Federal building, said Veltch, there was a conversation between Oscar Lawler and Clancy, in his presence and in the presence of Malcolm McLaren, a detective, handing photographs of three telegrams to the union official who is now a defendant. Veltch said Clancy admitted he had sent the three telegrams to the union official on the telegraph blanks with his own. The telegrams are signed "Gene."

They are the telegrams to the union official in which Clancy is alleged to have asked whether "Jim has left for the Coast yet" and urging that he be sent at once.

In response to other questions by Lawler, said Veltch, Clancy said that during the first part of August, 1910, he went to Seattle at the request of J. J. McNamara and there met J. B. McNamara, the local business agent, telling him that J. B. had been waiting several days for him. Clancy said, according to Veltch, that he knew J. B., having met him before at Cin-

The Wizard of Electricity Is Going to Try His Hand at Running His Own Business Affairs.

(BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] It is declared today that Thomas A. Edison, "wizard of electricity," who while holding financial control of the many corporations that have been built around his inventions, has always permitted others to conduct his business methods, is now to become active commander-in-chief of the whole corporate machinery.

This was made known with the announcement of the resignation of Frank L. Dyer, president of the Edison company and allied interests. Dyer said he has resigned because of personal interests.

It is said a meeting of the directors of the Edison corporations will be held within a day or two.

MRS. LESH IS SANE.

Woman, Who Confessed at Los Angeles, Will Be Tried for First Degree Murder at Sedalia.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SEDALIA (Mo.) Nov. 18.—Mrs. Pansy Ellen Lesh, who confessed at Los Angeles to poisoning two women, is sane, according to physicians who examined her today, and the prosecution says she will be charged with first degree murder, regardless of her confession. She will be tried before the last of this week.

At the Los Angeles Federal building, said Veltch, there was a conversation between Oscar Lawler and Clancy, in his presence and in the presence of Malcolm McLaren, a detective, handing photographs of three telegrams to the union official who is now a defendant. Veltch said Clancy admitted he had sent the three telegrams to the union official on the telegraph blanks with his own. The telegrams are signed "Gene."

They are the telegrams to the union official in which Clancy is alleged to have asked whether "Jim has left for the Coast yet" and urging that he be sent at once.

In response to other questions by Lawler, said Veltch, Clancy said that during the first part of August, 1910, he went to Seattle at the request of J. J. McNamara and there met J. B. McNamara, the local business agent, telling him that J. B. had been waiting several days for him. Clancy said, according to Veltch, that he knew J. B., having met him before at Cin-

The Wizard of Electricity Is Going to Try His Hand at Running His Own Business Affairs.

(BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] It is declared today that Thomas A. Edison, "wizard of electricity," who while holding financial control of the many corporations that have been built around his inventions, has always permitted others to conduct his business methods, is now to become active commander-in-chief of the whole corporate machinery.

This was made known with the announcement of the resignation of Frank L. Dyer, president of the Edison company and allied interests. Dyer said he has resigned because of personal interests.

It is said a meeting of the directors of the Edison corporations will be held within a day or two.

Woman, Who Confessed at Los Angeles, Will Be Tried for First Degree Murder at Sedalia.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SEDALIA (Mo.) Nov. 18.—Mrs. Pansy Ellen Lesh, who confessed at Los Angeles to poisoning two women, is sane, according to physicians who examined her today, and the prosecution says she will be charged with first degree murder, regardless of her confession. She will be tried before the last of this week.

CLANCY FALLS IN FAINT

AT SIGHT OF M'MANIGAL.

Escape of David Caplan and His Family from Justice

and Retribution Also Told to Jury in the Trial in Indianapolis of Forty-five Union Men — Oscar Lawler and Others from Los Angeles on the Stand.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] How O. A. Tveitmo and Anton Johansson aided David Caplan who assisted J. B. McNamara in the preparation of the Los Angeles Times explosion, to join his wife and children and then escape from California, was told on the witness stand in the trial of the dynamite cases today, and also the story of Eugene Clancy's admission and how he fainted when he was confronted in a lawyer's office with Orrie McManigal. He was unconscious so long that those present became frightened and a hypodermic was administered before he could be restored.

CAPLAN'S ESCAPE.

The escape of David Caplan was described by Malcolm Loughhead, an employee of a taxicab company. He said his employer, in July, 1911, ordered him to take a car to the office of O. A. Tveitmo and when he arrived Anton Johansson got in and gave him directions where to go. A little distance the party picked up another man with dark mustache and a knip and they drove about five feet ten inches high. They went south and then northeast and came to a canyon, where he was ordered to stop. Johansson left the car and soon returned with a woman and two children, a boy and girl, apparently 4 and 8 years of age.

Once he heard the woman called "Flora," but that was the only time she was addressed by her name. He took the party, consisting of Johansson, the strange man, the woman and two children, to Reno, Nev., where they were in time to catch the Overland Limited train for Chicago which the parties immediately boarded. As they left the car Johansson gave the driver a letter to Tveitmo, which he carried when he reached San Francisco.

Those Looking for Land Should See Kings County

Kings county has much to offer the homeseeker and the investor. If you have not seen Kings county, you have not seen California.

In Kings county is the Santa Paula Ranch—consisting of about 3200 acres. This land is part of the original Botaford Ranch—located near Hanford, four and one-half miles from Stratton, on the Southern Pacific, and five and one-half miles from Guernsey, on the Santa Fe.

The Santa Paula Ranch is in one of the best irrigated districts of Kings county, under the Kings River system. The water goes with the land—use all you want.

There is no more favored section in all California. Fine for alfalfa, dairying and hog raising. Grows everything except citrus fruits. Soil and climate ideal. Good markets in easy reach for all that can be raised.

Santa Paula ranch land can be bought in forty and eighty-acre tracts at most favorable prices, and on easy terms. This land is almost certain to double in value within from three to five years.

It will pay you to investigate Santa Paula Ranch—where the water goes with the land. We can put you in right. We saw the trend of things some time ago and secured this tract on the most favorable terms. We can sell you this land for less money than equally desirable land can be bought for anywhere else in the county.

—If you are going to buy land, let us send you an illustrated folder giving all details, and containing much valuable information concerning the products of Kings county. Then if you are sufficiently impressed, go with us and see the Santa Paula Ranch for yourself.

Weekly excursions. Low railroad fare. Tickets good returning ten days from date of departure. Arrange to take this trip with us. You will not regret it. For further particulars, address S. T. Kelsey, general sales agent, or J. L. Mayers, sales manager, No. 333 Higgins Building—No. 108 West Second street, Los Angeles, Cal. Or, better, come in and let's talk it over.—Advertisement.

JOHANNSEN NAMED.

Olaf A. Tveitmo and Anton Johansson, San Francisco union labor leaders, were named by witnesses today as having been in the company of J. B. McNamara's alleged accomplices before the Los Angeles explosion.

James D. Graham, formerly employed by the Asiatic Exclusion League, of which Tveitmo was president, said Mr. A. Schmidt and David Caplan used to frequent the near-by offices of the California Building Trades Council and Tveitmo saw them there. The witness testified as to their telephone number which McNamara is said to have used in calling up Tveitmo when the preparations for the Los Angeles explosion were under way.

Graham said Johannsen and Secretary Voell of the league saw Schmidt about the place. Schmidt and Caplan were indicted on charges of murder as accomplices of McNamara, but they never were captured. They have been described as men who figured in the purchase of the dynamite.

Mrs. D. R. Campbell, formerly Mrs. Peasanti, keeper of a hotel at Corte Madera, across the bay from San Francisco, said she told of McNamara's visit to her house.

Mrs. Lavin said she visited Corte Madera with Schmidt and on the day of the explosion, she and her husband, Arthur L. Veltch, assistant District Attorney of Los Angeles county, testified that in December, 1911, he talked to Eugene A. Clancy, another San Francisco union labor leader, in the presence of Oscar Lawler.

Clancy, according to Veltch, admitted having sent telegrams in July, 1911, to John J. McNamara, at Indianapolis, requesting that James B. be sent to the Pacific Coast.

Veltch testified Clancy said in August he went to Seattle at J. J.'s order. "There he was introduced to J. B. by the business agent of the local union," related Veltch, quoting Clancy. "Clancy admitted J. B. said: 'You know what I'm doing here,' but Clancy declared he was ignorant of J. B.'s question and when he learned it was dynamiting, he refused to have anything to do with it. He also professed to know nothing of the Seattle explosion on August 31, but he admitted having telegraphed to have the dynamite sent to the Coast."

BITS OF INFERNAL MACHINES.

LOS ANGELES TESTIMONY.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—Blackened pieces of infernal machines which figured in the explosion at Los Angeles, Cal., on October 1, 1910, when over 200 people were killed and injured, were shown today to the jury in the trial of the Times Building dynamite case. The pieces were identified by the jury as having been used by the dynamite conspirators.

Events involving the handling of the nitroglycerine with which James B. McNamara caused the explosion were first described by witnesses.

PACKED THE BOXES.

William Flynn, employee of powder company in San Francisco, testified that on September 20, 1910, he packed in boxes 500 pounds of nitroglycerin and delivered it to the hunch used by McNamara. That was ten days before the Los Angeles explosion. Meantime the dynamiters had stowed the explosive in a vacant house in San Francisco and McNamara had taken a supply to Los Angeles.

Joseph W. Brigham, a motorman in Los Angeles, said after he had witnessed the wreck of the Times Building, he was walking past the home of Felix J. Zechendear, secretary of the Merchants' Manufacturers' Association, when a woman called him. She pointed out a package. Later the police came and the package was found to contain a bomb.

RICE'S TESTIMONY.

Thomas F. Rice, one of the police detectives called, told of unwrapping the package and the finding of sixteen sticks of dynamite.

"From there I was sent to the home of Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, proprietor of 'The Times,' said Rice. 'At Gen. Otis' home we found a man under a bay window. I carried the case about seventy-five feet and called the Chief of Police. When he arrived we opened the case. In doing so I heard the buzzing of an alarm clock. We all ran and in another instant there was an explosion which tore up the ground for an eighth of an acre."

Other witnesses had testified McNamara confessed to having placed all the boxes in Los Angeles to explode at 1 a.m.

A clock was shown the jury as having been taken from the bomb near the Zechendear home. The alarm

THE INDICTMENTS.
PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 18.—Three more arrests were made today in connection with the vice clique scandal
which has created a stir in this city in the past few days. The arrested men are Harry A. Work, a hotel clerk; E. E. Wedemeyer, a book-keeper, and W. D. Tierney, department manager of a large drug house. So far fourteen men have been arrested, and of this number only two have been able to furnish bonds to insure their appearance in court. All except one of the defendants were arraigned on trial for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, was said
today when counsel made their appeals to the jury. Tomorrow their fate will be delivered into the hands of the jury.

THE DEFENDANTS.
The four defendants, "Gyp the Blond," "Lefty Louie," "Red Frank"
and "Whitey" Lewis, heard themselves characterized by Dist. Atty. Moss as
"the hands which held the instruments of death—the hands of the body of which Rose, Webber and Vallon were the brains and Lieut. Charles Becker the will." He referred to them as "that hateful set of men and women who identified themselves with the courage of soldiers in the face of death."

By their attorney, Charles C. F.
Wahl, the defendants were pictured as men who had been criminals who were innocent of the crime and victims of the testimony of "the men who really killed Rosenthal—Rose,
Webber, Vallon and Schepka."

TO FACE THE JURY.
Ohio State House Stenographer Will
Try to Convince the Twelve She Did
Not Kill a Man.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 18.—Perry
M. Ford was the chief witness today in the case of Miss Cecilia Farley, a State House stenographer, charged with killing Alvin E. Zollinger, an advertising solicitor, shot May 15 in City Park.

Tomorrow Miss Farley will take the stand to attempt to convince the jury that she did not shoot the man with whom she had relations for years, but that he was accidentally shot and how he determined to break off the relations between Quigley and Miss Farley.

Ford, who was Zollinger's closest friend, said Quigley fell in love with the girl and she with him. Ford then told of how Zollinger became angry over the matter and how he determined to break off the relations between Quigley and Miss Farley.

DYSPEPSIA CURE

SOUL, GASSY, SICK STOMACHS
PUT IN GOOD ORDER.

"Pape's Diapnein" Settles Upset
Stomachs and Ends Indigestion
in Five Minutes.

Do some foods you eat hit back-taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or
Mrs. Dyspeptic, just this: Pape's Diapnein digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick,
so certainly effective. No difference
how badly your stomach is disordered
you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what a pleasure you meet in that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure.
Diapnein is quick, positive and puts your stomach in healthy condition so
the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Diapnein comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no
belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Now, make the best investment
you ever made by getting a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapnein from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—[Advertisement.]

THE INDICTMENTS.
PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 18.—Three more arrests were made today in connection with the vice clique scandal
which has created a stir in this city in the past few days. The arrested men are Harry A. Work, a hotel
clerk; E. E. Wedemeyer, a book-keeper, and W. D. Tierney, department manager of a large drug house. So far fourteen men have been arrested,
and of this number only two
have been able to furnish bonds to insure their appearance in court. All except one of the defendants were arraigned on trial for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, was said
today when counsel made their appeals to the jury. Tomorrow their fate will be delivered into the hands of the jury.

THE DEFENDANTS.
The four defendants, "Gyp the Blond," "Lefty Louie," "Red Frank"
and "Whitey" Lewis, heard themselves characterized by Dist. Atty. Moss as
"the hands which held the instruments of death—the hands of the body
of which Rose, Webber and Vallon
were the brains and Lieut. Charles Becker the will." He referred to them as "that hateful set of men and women who identified themselves with the courage of soldiers
in the face of death."

By their attorney, Charles C. F.
Wahl, the defendants were pictured
as men who had been criminals
who were innocent of the crime and
victims of the testimony of "the men who really killed Rosenthal—Rose,
Webber, Vallon and Schepka."

TO FACE THE JURY.
Ohio State House Stenographer Will
Try to Convince the Twelve She Did
Not Kill a Man.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 18.—Perry
M. Ford was the chief witness today
in the case of Miss Cecilia Farley, a State House stenographer, charged with killing Alvin E. Zollinger, an advertising solicitor, shot May 15 in City Park.

Tomorrow Miss Farley will take the stand to attempt to convince the jury
that she did not shoot the man with whom she had relations for years, but that he was accidentally shot and how he determined to break off the relations between Quigley and Miss Farley.

Ford, who was Zollinger's closest friend, said Quigley fell in love with the girl and she with him. Ford then told of how Zollinger became angry
over the matter and how he determined to break off the relations between Quigley and Miss Farley.

HERE IS A REAL

SOUL, GASSY, SICK STOMACHS
PUT IN GOOD ORDER.

"Pape's Diapnein" Settles Upset
Stomachs and Ends Indigestion
in Five Minutes.

Do some foods you eat hit back-
taste good, but work badly; ferment
into stubborn lumps and cause a sick,
sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or
Mrs. Dyspeptic, just this: Pape's
Diapnein digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick,
so certainly effective. No difference
how badly your stomach is disordered
you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what a pleasure you meet in that it strengthens and regulates
your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure.
Diapnein is quick, positive and puts your stomach in healthy condition so
the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Dia-
pnein comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no
belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Now, make the best investment
you ever made by getting a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapnein from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—[Advertisement.]

Man Who Taught the Japs to Use the Telephone Receives the Order of the Sacred Treasure.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—John J. Carly of New York has been created a member of the Order of the Sacred Treasure by the Emperor of Japan. The investiture with the signals of the order and the presentation of a diploma for valuable service to Japan and her people have just taken place, the ceremony being conducted by Y. Numano, Consul-General at New York.

Mr. Carly also wears the decoration of the Order of the Rising Sun, conferred by the late Emperor after the close of the war between Japan and Russia.

Mr. Carly is chief engineer of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and his methods of telephone engineering were those adopted by the Japanese government engineers after they had investigated the subject in all European countries and America.

PLENTY TO SAY ABOUT SCHOOLS.

TEACHERS PLAN TO DISCUSS THINGS OF MOMENT.

County Supervisory Association to Hear About Free Text-Book Amendment from Superintendent, and Other Matters from Instruction—First Meeting of Organization.

Notice will be sent out today announcing that the first session of the Los Angeles County Supervisory Association, organized by teachers and school authorities, will be held Saturday, after postponement of a week. The meeting will be convened at 10 o'clock in the morning at the Normal School Library.

A brief will be read on a proposed teachers' pension law prepared by E. M. Fisher, principal of Oakland Polytechnic High School, followed by an address on "A Teachers' College for Los Angeles," by President J. F. Millspaugh of the Normal. County Superintendent Keppel will speak on "The Phalanx Amendment—Now a Law. What May WE Do About It?" A discussion by all present will close the meeting.

A series of other meetings have been planned, the first of which will be held January 18. W. L. Stephens of Long Beach was speaker on "The Teacher and Pupil—Points of Common Interest," which will be discussed in five-minute periods by Mrs. A. C. Bainbridge, Chatsworth; H. P. Reynolds, Pomona; Callie M. Darnell, San Fernando, and H. F. Wood, Huntington Park.

The final hour of the session will be given up to section work, with one division for the discussion of city school problems and one for country schools. These talks will be given in the first section: The Authority of the School Over Pupil at Noon and on the Street; W. Y. Thornbury, Venice; "The Demoralizing City Amusements and the Schools," J. W. Thomas, Santa Monica; "Self-Government," Mabel W. Willebrandt, South Pasadena.

On country schools the following addresses will enliven the session: "Busy Work in One-Teacher Schools," Bessie Hamilton, Santa Fe; "Playgrounds of Rural Schools," Belle Bennett Thorpe, Monte Vista; "Nature Study for Country Schools," B. W. Griffith, Clearwater.

The meeting of February 15 will have the following as its programme: "Vocational Training: Its Scope and Limits," Jerome O. Cross, Pasadena, followed by short discussion by A. H. Barry, Pasadena; E. E. Redondo, Redondo Beach; P. Purviance, Montebello; Maude M. Carl, Seal Garden; address on "Agriculture, the New Profession," by H. W. Hochbaum, Los Angeles Normal, with discussion by E. A. Farrington, El Monte; J. Allen Park, Avalon; Arthur H. Clayton, Norwalk; Cora S. Taylor, Glendale.

The programme March 15 will be with an address by J. C. Long, Long Beach, on "The Social Center Idea," to be discussed in short talks by C. A. Langworthy, Redondo Beach; Anna Bee Johnson, Enterprise; and George C. Bush, South Pasadena. The city school section work will be exploited in talks as follows: "The City's Influence on the Adolescent," Dr. M. R. Parmelee, Whittier; "The High School Assembly," N. F. Smith, Alhambra; "Electives vs. Courses for the Curriculum," Cree T. Work, Venice.

For the country school section: "Culture and Decoration of the School Yard," J. W. Masters, Downey; "Outdoor Study and Recreation," Hazel Hillen, Pomona; "Character Building," Mrs. E. C. Ingham, San Fernando.

For the meeting April 19 the following will be the programme: Address, "Modern Language," Mrs. Alice C. Schreiber, Monrovia; discussed by W. H. Barts, Huntington Park; John C. Epperson, Antelope Valley; John B. Nichols, Compton; and A. Kate Collins, Monrovia. An address on a subject later to be chosen will be given by Supt. Francis of the Los Angeles public schools.

The following programme will close the sessions for the year on May 17: Ten-minute speeches on "Identification of the Migrant Child," F. H. Gant, Redondo Beach; "Athletics vs. Home Work," Mrs. O. D. Eddy, Alhambra; "Inter School Athletics: Use and Abuse," C. W. Baker, Azusa; "Crediting Pupils for Home and Other Outside Work," Cree T. Work, Venice; "The Overlook Room," G. W. Crozier, Inglewood; "Mental Discipline," C. L. Edgerton, Artesia; "The Problem of Attendance," C. F. Sparks, Lardburg; "Written Tests," Ada S. Nelson, Los Nietos; "Economics in the High School," M. M. Livingston, Burbank.

The officers of the association are: President, M. R. Kerr, Inglewood; vice-president, B. F. Schuler, Bell; secretary, Martha McClure, Glendale; treasurer, J. F. Smith, San Gabriel. The Programme Committee is made up of M. R. Kerr, Mark Keppel, Cree T. Work, Mrs. O. D. Eddy.

TO GIVE THE GLAD HAND.

Chamber of Commerce Names Members to Entertain Coming Visitors from the North.

The members of the Sacramento Valley Exposition Committee will arrive in this city on December 4, en route to San Diego, and the Chamber of Commerce is making preparations to entertain them upon the return trip. The following committee has been appointed to take the matter in hand: S. A. Butler, J. S. Stinson, Joseph Scott, Walter Lindley, P. H. Clark, Carl McStay, C. F. Burnham and P. F. Wood. The entertainment of United States Senators Jones, Catron and Chamberlain, who are here engaged in the investigation of the Soldiers' Home at Saticum, has been put in the hands of the committee which is taking care of the entertainment of Gen. Bixby. It is desired that they shall see and know about Los Angeles Harbor.

CLAIM CITIZENSHIP.

The important question of the jurisdiction of the United States government over the Indian reservations will be argued next week in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted in behalf of Ambrosio Apapas, Charlie Arenas, Agapito, Corpeilo, Francisco, Pablo and Santos Lugo and Leoncio Lugo, charged with assault. Apapas is also charged with the murder of Indian Agent Stanley at the council house on the Coahuila Reservation on that day. It is denied that the defendants are wards of the nation and an attempt is being made to have the prosecution of the men turned over to the State authorities. The alleged position of the Indians as to citizenship is defined by the treaty between the United States and Mexico following the Mexican War.

Miss Amanda Meyerhoff.

Who was arrested on the eve of her wedding on a charge of passing bad checks worth to buy her trousseau. She confessed the act, saying she was too proud to tell her future husband that she did not have the money.

PRIDE JANGLES WEDDING BELLS.

BRIDE ARRESTED FOR PASSING FICTITIOUS CHECKS.

Declines to Accept from Sweetheart Money to Buy Her Trousseau, Saying She Had Plenty in the Bank—Caught as She Tries to Buy Finery at Local Stores.

In an effort to conceal from Julius Daniel, of No. 140 East Third street, whom she was to have married today, the fact that she had deceived him when she said she had enough money in the bank to buy her trousseau, Miss Amanda Meyerhoff, a striking blonde of 21 years, resorted to fictitious checks.

Miss Meyerhoff was arrested yesterday in a local dry goods store by Detective Nick Harris of the Harris Detective Agency, when she presented a $25 check in payment for a pair of gloves. The young woman confessed to Detective Harris and newspaper reporters, that she had cashed two other bad pieces of paper. The girl broke down completely in the matron's quarters at the Central Station yesterday afternoon, when Detective called to see her.

"I was too proud to let you know I didn't have any money," sobbed the girl as she threw herself into his arms. "I couldn't take your money, so I wrote the checks. I wanted clothes, and didn't know any other way to get them."

"I'm going to stand by this little girl," gallantly declared Detective Daniel. "I'm sorry we can't get married tomorrow, but we will, though, just as soon as she gets out of this. She is a good girl. I've known her for more than two years. I offered her money several times, but she always insisted that she had sufficient in the bank. The other day I forced her to accept $20. She need not have passed these checks, for I have money in the bank, and would gladly have shared it with her."

Miss Meyerhoff passed the first check, one for $10, on the 8th inst. It was made payable to Miss Anna Walters, and was signed by W. A. Walters, whose address the girl said was No. 617 South Garland avenue. She bought a handbag.

The same day Miss Meyerhoff secured $25 cash on a bad check made payable to Miss Minnie Morton. She said her father lived at No. 309 South Bonnie Brae street. The check presented yesterday morning was made payable to Miss Minnie Morton and signed J. D. Morton.

All the checks were drawn on the National Bank of Orange. Miss Meyerhoff said her father taught her how to make out checks when she drew money for him upon several occasions.

WORKING GIRLS' PROPOSED HOME

BETHLEHEM INSTITUTION FOR ANOTHER IN CITY.

Fund Being Contributed to Purchase Property in Southern District. Congregational Church Will Sell Parsonage at Advantageous Price. Normal Girls Help Home for Boys.

Six thousand dollars contributed by the charitable incline of men and women of Los Angeles will make certain that this city can have a working girls' home for reputable girls and mothers out of work. A strong plea for help has been sent out by the Rev. Benjamin H. Reutepohler, managing director of the Bethlehem Institutions and pastor of Salem Congregational Church, on East Twenty-eighth street and Paloma avenue.

It is the aim to obtain the total amount of this subscription within three weeks or less. If this is successful, a home in the heart of the new southeast industrial district can be obtained for $1000 less than its cash value, and turned over for the use of the mother out of work and her child, or the girl who is seeking employment, but has no funds to tide over a rainy day. They will be a question of creed. The only restriction is that the lodgers shall be women of good reputation.

The parsonage of the Salem church, No. 1009 East Twenty-eighth street, has been picked out as a site for the new home. The congregation has been offered $4000 for the nine-room house, but has decided to take $1000 and the place will be turned into a working girls' home.

It is planned to spend about $1000 for an ample sleeping porch and some other small improvements. The balance of $2000 will put the home on a self-supporting basis. Contributions of $1000 each will be accepted. The balance of $2000 will put the home on a self-supporting basis. Contributions of $1000 each will be accepted. The balance of $2000 will put the home on a self-supporting basis. Contributions of $1000 each will be accepted.

While this crusade is under way for funds to found the home, seventy-five pupils of the State Normal School have banded themselves together to fit up a gymnasium and library for the Working Boys' Home, No. 1201 North Main street. A gymnasium is being fitted with such equipment as is donated, and everything from tennis shoes to swimming rings and punching bags will be gladly received by the normal students. A start also has been made in the library. The organization hopes to fit up the sleeping and dining-rooms more cheerfully. Miss Laura Sawyer has been chosen president of the normal students' organization; Loveline Scott, vice-president; Nellie Sullivan, secretary; Ralph Woods, treasurer. Fred Chamberlain, Jennie Bloomer and Elbert Phillips compose the Executive Committee.

knowledge, the contributions will be turned over to the treasurer of the board of directors of the Bethlehem Institutions, which is made up of some of the most prominent business men in Southern California.

"We want to help the helpless mothers and girls out of employment and give them a real home where they can be happy and finally obtain work without worrying about the purse strings," said Mr. Reutepohler yesterday.

"Our place will be right next to the church, where there is a fully equipped gymnasium, tennis courts and a pool-table that young men and women of the church use every night of the week. We have a free moving picture show once a week.

"All that any woman will be asked to pay for is the actual cost of her food. They will do the marketing themselves and 50 cents a day will make the home self-supporting. There will be no demand for payment until the woman is at work earning a salary.

"If we succeed in raising money for the home, we will teach our lodgers athletics, cooking, sewing, domestic science and care of the home. Miss Langley, who was chief dietitian at the County Hospital for about a year, has agreed to give her services free of charge as matron of the new home."

No Loss of Interest Between Investments

The new year is not very far away, and now is a good time to plan your January investments. If you are going to have cash on hand January first, you want to invest it, or reinvest it, as quickly as possible, so as not to have it lying idle for any length of time. Idle money means loss of interest, and no man can afford to let his money remain idle.

The best way to prevent loss of interest is to invest your money in our 6 per cent. Certificates as soon as you get it. These Certificates begin to pay 6 per cent interest immediately, and the interest is payable every half year by coupon.

The safety of these Certificates is beyond question. No one has ever lost a dollar invested in them during the 23 years we have been in business. There is more than $2,800,000 invested in them today, and safely earning 6 per cent interest.

Sold in $100 denominations or any multiple thereof. Write for full description or make up your mind to come in and see us about them right away.

MATHEWS PAINTS

Not How Cheap But How Good

Two coats of good paint will outwear three coats of poor paint. But the cost of applying the inferior paint is just as great as for the best—MATHEWS PAINT.

Doesn't a dollar spent in using right paint the first time bring more dividends than it will in its owner's pocket?

The user of Ready mixed paint must depend absolutely upon the manufacturer's ability and honesty. P.H.M. Paints have proven that they are worthy of the confidence reposed in them by a host of steady consumers.

South Pasadena to Enjoy Baby Show in Which Variety Will Be a Striking Feature.

SOUTH PASADENA, Nov. 18.—Babies of all sizes and shades of hue are most cordially invited to bring their mothers to the home of Mrs. Charles Cramer, No. 1211 Lyndon street, next Thursday afternoon. The occasion is a grand baby show for the benefit of the El Centro Parent-Teacher Association, and every baby and mother in the city are invited.

Those who have no babies of their own, are asked to borrow one, and if they are unable to do this, they are invited to come and view those furnished by others. There will be no prices offered, but refreshments will be served, and all who go are promised a lively and interesting time, and it will be an opportunity for the residents of the city to get an adequate idea of the coming generation, as it is guaranteed that a good line of samples will be on exhibition.

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

Good singing, and fine costumes characterized the Gypsy festival given Saturday evening at the Baptist Church for the benefit of the music fund. The cantata "The Gypsy Queen," was given under the direction of Miss Harriett Vail, and Miss Ethel Mason took the solo part. A chorus of of young women in bright gypsy costumes, giving tambourine drills, added much to the attraction.

These girls sang the choruses "The Gypsy Girl," from "The Bohemian Girl," and "The Song at Sunrise." Miss Mason presented the solo, "Love's a Gypsy" from Carmen, and Miss Mason and Miss Vail a duet, "The Gypsies," by Brahms.

Arrangements were in charge of the Music Committee of the church, and the girls assisting were Mrs. C. C. Williams, and the Misses Armstrong, Dorothy Wadsworth, Clara Williams, Lenore Hamm, Sarahella Peeler, Clara Johnson, Gladys Boekenog, Laura Royce, Harriett Stickle, Sallie Seay, Sara Tritt, Nadia Schultz, Helen Tuttle, Gladys Thacker, Louise Mason, Edith Stickle, Ramona Washburn, Frances Mason, Edna Thompson, Irene Stickle, Adelaide Wilde, Leone Thompson, Hazel Smith, Florence Black, Edna Black, and Grace Fugli.

Officers for the coming year were elected by the local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star at their last meeting as follows: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Norman F. Marsh; Worthy Patron, O. B. Manchester; Associate Matron, Miss Katharine Barker; secretary, Mrs. F. B. Higgins; treasurer, Mrs. Leo Longley; conductress, Mrs. O. B. Manchester; associate conductress, Mrs. W. D. Newell.

LAND CASE SETTLED.

The Commissioner of the Land Office has affirmed the decision of the local office, in the land case of Augustus Carter against Richard P. McGarvin, involving 160 acres in the Santa Monica Mountains. The local officers found in favor of Carter. McGarvin alleged that he was prevented from settling on the land to perfect his homestead entry by a "coterie of oil speculators."

Let X equal the unknown quantity and then tell us if three lots on the Grand avenue hilltop bring $300,000 now, what would they be worth with Bunker Hill raised? This problem is on the level.

ANOTHER QUESTION.

France and Spain have signed the Morocco treaty. This intelligence might seem very greater assurance if we knew exactly how much this has to do with Germany's iron fields in that much-perturbed territory.

LAST SAD RITES.

The Progressives are going to meet at Chicago in December. The weather will provide a chilling reception. This will be a relief, however, considering how hot it was made for them in the same city in June.

INACTIVE.

It has now been many days since the escape of Felix Diaz was announced. Since then if the young general has started anywhere we have failed to hear of it. If he did make his get-away he seems satisfied to let it go at that.

NO PROOF.

Relatives of a certain rich man at San Diego tried to have a guardian appointed for him when he deeded some of his property to his young wife. It ought to be so that a man could be kind to his wife without being suspected of insanity.

EASY FOR THEM.

The Bulgarian artillery received much assistance from the aeroplanes of the Balkan forces. The big guns merely took a birdseye view of the situation and the Balkan guns did the rest. They went ahead of the cannon and the man behind the gun stayed there. This seems to produce a warm combination.

IMPORTANT FUNCTION.

Los Angeles enjoyed a capital bench show. This should often be repeated. A good dog sometimes reflects sadly on human scrubs, and a thoroughbred brings out the best in a man. If there is any best in him, Schopenhauer said that he always watched how a man treated his dog, and if a man mistreated his dumb friend he saw to it that this person never had an opportunity to treat him in the same way.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK.

Gifford Pinchot went fishing in the channel near Port Arthur, Tex. A huge tarpon saw him first and jumped out of his boat. Pinchot's argument for the conservation of natural resources does not extend to fish of this species, however broadly it may include suckers in a political campaign. The tarpon finally met the harpoon and the boat was saved. He who fights and wins the fray will live to run another day. That is not saying that Pinchot and next friend will ever be truly in the swim.

A LITTLE BROMIDE, PLEASE.

A man at Venice went down in his cellar to pray or to get a bucket of coal. He met a fine specimen of Eve's friend. His serpentine grace coiled himself around the wastebasket, hissed defiance at humanity, and gave other evidence of the reality of his being. Seeing a snake in the dim light of a cellar is a legitimate visualisation. When a snake that can talk wriggles itself over the transom and winks one green eye and one pink one at the dog that is not there it is a sign that one requires a change of glasses.

US-AND FEATHERS.

In New York City eggs are selling for 70 cents a dozen and it is predicted that they will go to 75 cents within a week. One time a dandy undertaker to rob a hen-roost. On his way out of the coop with what he took to be a fine fat hen the bird shrieked this protest: "For the Lord's sake, Sambo, let go of my wing. I'm no chicken; I'm a parrot and my name is Lix." Taking a strange hold on the bird's neck, Sambo replied, "Never mind, honey, about what you is; anything with feathers is a friend of mine." California might offer New York a shipment of seagull eggs, for it is possible that, under the circumstances, the Gothamites would be as gullible as Sambo.

The announcement by Senator Dixon of a meeting of the Bull Moose for reorganization raises the question, in what direction is the new organization to go. It has come to the brink and must either jump boldly into socialism or content itself with a programme quite as commonplace as that of older parties.

The "harvester trust" has given $1,000,000 for the establishment of an agricultural service bureau to be headed by Prof. Perry S. Holden of Iowa State Agricultural College. Prof. Holden is the great corn expert of Iowa. There seems to be a difference in "trusts."

The theater manager who would devise some means that would provide for a proportionate return to the ticket purchaser of a part of his money in case he did not like the show and went out after the first act would make a hit.

If they had only given the old man a chance the Sultan of Turkey would have shown that Balkan crowd how to get over an allotted distance of ground within a certain given time.

THE EDDIE SCANDAL.

Developments seeping out of the Guy Eddie scandal are coming thick and fast. The growing stench has drawn the Good Government Organization (ye Gods, what a name for such a gang—"Good Government" forsooth!) has produced a violent retching in the municipal administration and caused the spewing-out of that distinguished purifier and reformer, George Bakingsworth Anderson; has set the political bosses by the ears; has invited a special investigation of the whole mess by the grand jury; and has led that industrious bringer-of-libel-suits, Lew Works, to run to cover.

In all this smash of matter and crush of words, "Uncle Aleck" seems to be unhurt. He dodged the lightning of popular wrath yesterday when he kicked his overboiling clerk, Anderson, out of his office and removed little Chote from his job in the Prosecuting Attorney's department.

The disclosures relative to the arrest and incarceration of Mr. Lloyd, because he had dared to be a witness against Guy Eddie, prove the truth of the charges The Times has made against the tyrannical and conscienceless Goo-Goo ring. There are fellows active in the politics of that organization who would not hesitate to dramatize a building or slit a throat to punish an opponent. Their treatment of Lloyd was mild for them. The old Espee ring was unscrupulous, venal and dirty; but it never went to lengths common to its successors—it never sought to destroy political antagonists by bringing them down to the grave with persistent persecution.

The truth about these brutalities is coming out. When the grand jury investigation has been made nobody but a fanatic will remain unconvinced. What is the noisiest and most Pharisaical "reformers" of the lot spending the "pious fund" to protect lechery and punish truth-telling. The violent quarrel that has broken out among them will redound to the benefit of the public. "When thieves fall out, honest men get their dues." Not much longer will the people tolerate such a crew in the control of the city's affairs.

We wonder if it is true that George Bakingsworth Anderson really wanted to be cooked and wrote that letter from the Good Government Organization to the Mayor, to bring it about? If it was the aim and purpose of the letter, whoever wrote it, to decapitate Anderson, the scheme certainly worked. The Mayor rose beautifully.

Well, praise be to God, the end of a regime of hypocrisy and villainy and oppression is in sight. One of these days it will be possible for a decent merchant or business man to go back and forth and conduct his affairs in an honorable way in this town, without paying political tribute or being annoyed by some exasperatingly foolish ordinance or being pestered by rough-neck inspectors, or being jailed by some jejune jackanapes invented with a little brief authority.

ADVANCE AGENT OF ADVERSITY.

Ex-Mayor P. H. McCarthy of San Francisco, the Advance Agent of Adversity, has been in town. His mission is said to be to bring the manufacturers, and building contractors, and employers of labor in Los Angeles to the same state of subjection to the unions as that which exists in San Francisco. His mission is to make of Los Angeles a closed-shop town, and to allow no employer of labor to run any other kind of a shop than a closed shop, a shop where only those men can work who wear the union-labor label, receive the union-labor wages, and limit the amount of the work they do to the maximum prescribed by union-labor bosses.

After Mr. McCarthy shall have "unionized" Los Angeles [never!] and thereby closed half the manufacturing establishments in the city and driven away or impoverished non-union workers, he may give his valuable services toward procuring the enactment of the bill now before Congress to rescind the executive orders issued by President Taft and ex-President Roosevelt, which forbade government employees from organizing themselves into trade-unions for the purpose of prescribing the conditions of their employment.

It is claimed on behalf of labor unions that postoffice clerks and carriers ought to have a right to organize, fix their own wages and hours of work, and "strike" to enforce compliance with their terms—reserving the right to boycott and picket and, if necessary, beat any scabs who accepted the places they vacated.

If such bill shall pass Congress why limit its operations to the Postoffice Department? Why not extend it to the army? It may readily be seen how greatly the efficiency of the army would be increased if there should be formed soldiers' unions, the members of which should refuse to march in the ranks with non-union soldiers, who should refuse to march at all or obey any order until their wages were increased, and unless turkey and terrapin should be added to their rations.

The Advance Agent of Adversity will not succeed in deluding the union laborites of Los Angeles into following his counsel. They will not lose their well-paid jobs in a fruitless endeavor to establish the closed shop in this city. Ex-Mayor McCarthy will return to San Francisco as Roderigo returned to Venice after his fruitless campaign against Desdemona, "with less money and more wit."

A SIGNIFICANT EVENT.

There are now between 20,000 and 25,000 Russian Jews in Los Angeles, according to a good authority. The Russian Jew is in a class by himself. He possesses the quick intelligence and the fluid intellectuality of the Russian, with the high idealism and the stability of purpose that marks the Jew. The young Russian Jews have, to a large extent, thrown off restraint, although they are still bound by the tradition of their race. They are of no country and are free from conventions. Yet this class is today giving the world some of its greatest artists, authors and thinkers.

Russian Jews are flocking to this country as to a "Promised Land." The story of Mary Antin, as told in her book which is attracting such widespread attention, gives an insight into the character of these people and the causes that have generated such a mind as is revealed in her relation. The steadily-increasing influx of these people into this country must be productive

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

Oh, now the vanquished statesman kicks and murmurs while the victor sings; but let's forget state politics, and try to think of helpful things. If any man rears up and tries to trash the threadbare issues over, let's bluff him once betwixt the eyes and take him home upon a door. The land the dippy eagle guards without our efforts can make good; let's take the tin cans from the yards, and bank the house, and whack up wood. Let's see the kids have decent rags when to the schoolhouse they parade; our old palladiums and flags and burlards do not need our aid. Let's fill our homes with true delight and see the wives and children laugh, while Freedom on her mountain height is sitting for a photograph. Let's help the wife who daily slaves among her tubs and pots and pans, the while the spangled banner waves above a crowd of also rans. Let's quit this thing of talking big of Vital Themes and Peepul's woes, and give some bedding to the pig, and put away the garden hose. Oh, let us for a while be sane and fix the porch and mend the pump, and let the musty old campaign lie dead and rotting at the dump.

BUYING A SHIRT.

President-elect Wilson has illustrated in a simple but efficient way the magnificent simplicity of American democracy. In its broad and not in its parties sense.

Gov. Wilson, for he is still Governor, and will be until December 31, for six weeks' salary is not to be lightly rejected, accepted an invitation to attend a social function in New York City where evening dress was required. A spike-tail coat and a low-cut vest he had, but he was shy a full-bodied shirt. Either he had none, or Mrs. Wilson had forgotten to put it in his suitcase.

The President-elect did not entrust the task of procuring a shirt to his valet de chambre, for valetage had had none. He quietly entered a street car, hung on to a strap until he reached a department store, where, at the men's furnishing goods department, he bought a high-class linen-bosomed, cotton-backed dress shirt for $2, marked down to $1.99, and pocketed the 1 cent change, placed the package containing the shirt under his arm and returned to his hotel and donned his purchase.

The only fly in the amber of this grand exhibition of unpretentious democratic simplicity was the fact that the incident was telegraphed by the Associated Press all over the United States and Canada, and possibly was cabled to Europe and Asia. If so, with what emotions of envy the sovereigns of effete despotisms must have read how the Chief Executive-elect of a nation of one hundred millions of people repudiated a hiatus in his wardrobe. If Emperor Bill had been shy a shirt the omission would have been noted by his First Gentleman of the Bed Chamber. That gentleman would have instructed the second assistant Gold Stick in Waiting to proceed in one of the royal autos guarded by an escort of imperial cavalry to "Herzog's" in Berlin and buy a dozen shirts. Emperor Bill would in due course get one of these and the other eleven would be divided between the royal valets and gentlemen in waiting.

When George the Fifth, King of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, Lord of the Isles and High Cockorum of half a hundred colonies, read the account of Woodrow Wilson buying a shirt he doubtless said to himself—for there is a good deal of manly human being in George: "Oh, if they would only let me cut out all the hairy rot that makes me tired, and when I wanted a shirt just take eight bob and go, on the top of an omnibus, to the Strand, and buy a shirt and get tuppence hapenny discount for cash, and purchase a paper of popcorn with the money and chew it on the way home, I should quite enjoy it."

The local dancing masters have decided against the further use of rag-time. Necessarily the jig is up.

REVISING THE TARIFF.

[Brooklyn Times:] "Gentlemen," said the newly-elected President, "the tariff is about to be revised. How shall we do it? I await your pleasure."

"Revise it so that I may buy things cheaper," said the consumer promptly.

"Revise it so that I may get a better price for my product," said the protected manufacturer.

"Revise it any way you like, so long as you cut off none of my profits," said the money-bag.

"Revise it so as not to offend any of the people who make campaign contributions," said the politician.

"Revise it according to the judgment of experts who have studied it," said the college professor.

"Don't let experts have a hand in it whatever you do," admonished the "practical" man.

"Revise it in such a way as not to hurt business," said the business man.

"Revise it upward. It's too low," said the stand-patter.

"Revise it downward. It's too high," said the Democrat.

"Abolish it," said the free-trader.

"Gentlemen," said the newly-elected President, "I have heard your pleasure in the matter of the tariff. Anybody wishing my job for the next four years may have it."

MEN AND THINGS ACROSS THE SEA.

The Kaiser Likes to Joy Ride.
 Emperor William has more motor cars than any other sovereign in the world. He has substituted the motor car for the slower horses and carriages upon all occasions excepting solemn state affairs and his constitutional in the Tiergarten. Even for that he is now more often seen in one of his many cars speeding through the park than on horseback.

The Kaiser is very fond of "speeding." It is the talk in court circles that his recent illness was directly attributable to a fast ride in an open car resulting in a severe chilling from the sharp wind.

The Kaiser has fifty-two cars in the imperial garage. Of these fifteen are for his own personal use. He has thirty-two chauffeurs, but only two of these—Herr Schroeder and Herr Werner—who have the title of "chief chauffeurs"—are entrusted with life and safety of the Emperor. They know his every whim. It is seldom that one of the other chauffeurs drives the Kaiser. To pilot the car of the German Emperor, and that at the speed at which he likes to be whisked along through the streets, is no small responsibility and a severe strain even upon steady nerves.

On each of the motors of the Kaiser and his sons is a special horn, giving forth a peculiar tone of its own. No one else is allowed to use it. That the Kaiser's chauffeurs can concentrate their entire attention upon guiding the car, a bugler sits by his side and blows a horn, the note of which is known wherever the Emperor has been as a signal that "the Kaiser is coming."

Prince Murat's Bravery.

Prince Napoleon Murat, who is fighting under the Bulgarian colors in the present Balkan war, seems to have inherited to a greater degree than any other of the members of his house the reckless bravery and love of fighting which so distinguished his great-grandfather, created King of Naples by his brother-in-law, the first Emperor Napoleon. Prince Napoleon Murat entered the French army as a private and won his epaulettes by such splendid gallantry out in Madagascar at the time of the conquest of the island that the government did not dare to withhold the promotion. He served for a time as lieutenant in the celebrated Ninth Cuirassiers of the French army, but resigned his commission in consequence of financial troubles, and on the outbreak of the war between Russia and Japan offered his sword to the Czar, who appointed him captain of the Second Regiment of Dagestan Cavalry. He was invalided home badly wounded by a Japanese rifle bullet, which passed through his neck, sparing by a fraction of an inch his jugular vein and carotid artery.

Oldest Royal Family Extinct.

[Chicago Tribune:] With the death of Prince Nicholas Lusignan in St. Petersburg ends the oldest royal line in the world. Prince Nicholas was the only son of Louis, son VI, King of Cyprus, Syria, and Jerusalem until the year 1878.

His house has reigned there since the days of the crusades, a matter of seven and a half centuries. The British government offered King Lusignan a handsome pension if he would formally renounce his claims and retire to some spot in the British Empire, but the monarch refused, saying he would rather die in poverty than renounce his rights to his throne.

He was exiled from Cyprus and went to St. Petersburg, where his family was brought up. They all died in the greatest poverty, and Prince Nicholas ended his life in a public hospital the other day.

The ancient line came from the town of Lusignan in France.

They were known in history as Counts of Poles till the eleventh century, when one of them became King of Cyprus and Jerusalem, taken from Moslems by the Knights of the Cross.

Will Divide Persia.

It seems now inevitable that the Persian lamb should be torn in pieces and shared between the Russian bear and the British lion. Persia has for many years been maintained as a "buffer" state; that is, it furnishes a neutral border between Russian influence on the north and British influence on the south in Asia, and kept the two great empires apart.

Five years ago England and Russia made a treaty under which they recognized each other's "spheres of influence" in Persia. This plan hasn't quite worked, and now Russian Minister Sassouf has been in London to arrange a closer understanding about the division of the plunder. It is understood that England is willing to let Russia practically have her way in Persia on the understanding that Russia will on her side turn a blind eye on British claims of aggression in Tibet. Recently the Chinese have been trying to assert their sovereignty in Tibet, and it is believed that the British will have to put forth a stronger hand there.

Thus it is that the small and helpless nations are "benevolently assimilated." Of course, the argument in support of this policy is that if these small nations would behave themselves and maintain peace and order, the big nations would be glad to leave them alone, and even to lend them a helping hand, but when they play the brigand they have to be taken in charge.

It is only in this way that civilization can be extended over the earth, it seems.

A Modern Spartan Woman.

[Chicago Inter Ocean:] Dr. Mary Walker of Washington—the lady who wears trousers—says she liked a man during her youth, but that he told her she would have to wear woman's clothes or he would not marry her. Therefore she gave him up.

We don't blame the man! Who would have the fact of a wife's "wearing the trousers" in the family paraded to the world? But that doesn't prevent us from admiring the super-Spartan fortitude and consistency of Dr. Mary.

That's what we call making a sacrifice for principle! That's what we say is downright self-immolation! We don't wonder that Dr. Mary Walker advises women to go to the polls and vote, despite the fact that mere man says she shall not. A woman who could do what Dr. Mary Walker did would be willing to brave the law, the police, established institutions or anything else.

It was Gen. Taylor of the Boston Globe who said Dr. Mary Walker was the "only really self-made man" he ever knew.

All of 'Em Have Failed.

[Louisville Courier-Journal:] Mr. Bryan asserted that the lunatic Schrank should not be the arbiter in a national election, and it is also plain that Frank Munsey's fifty-seven magazine writers failed in the attempt.

 Let X equal the unknown quantity and then tell us if three lots on the Grand avenue hilltop bring $300,000 now, what would they be worth with Bunker Hill raked? This problem is on the level.

ANOTHER QUESTION.
 France and Spain have signed the Morocco treaty. This intelligence might convey greater assurance if we knew exactly how much this has to do with Germany's iron fields in that much-perturbed territory.

LAST SAD RITES.
 The Progressives are going to meet at Chicago in December. The weather will provide a chilling reception. This will be a relief, however, considering how hot it was made for them in the same city in June.

INACTIVE.
 It has now been many days since the escape of Felix Diaz was announced. Since then if the young general has started anywhere we have failed to hear of it. If he did make his get-away he seems satisfied to let it go at that.

NO PROOF.
 Relatives of a certain rich man at San Diego tried to have a guardian appointed for him when he deeded some of his property to his young wife. It ought to be so that a man could be kind to his wife without being suspected of insanity.

EASY FOR THEM.
 The Bulgarian artillery received much assistance from the aeroplanes of the Balkan forces. The birdmen merely took a birdseye view of the situation and the Bulgarian guns did the rest. They went ahead of the cannon and the man behind the gun stayed there. This seems to produce a warm combination.

IMPORTANT FUNCTION.
 Los Angeles enjoyed a capital bench show. This should often be repeated. A good dog sometimes reflects sadly on human scrubs, and a thoroughbred brings out the best in a man. If there is any best in him, Schopenhauer said that he always watched how a man treated his dog, and if a man mistreated his dumb friend he saw to it that this person never had an opportunity to treat him in the same way.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK.
 Gifford Pinchot went fishing in the channel near Port Arthur, Tex. A huge tarpon saw him first and jumped into his boat. Pinchot's argument for the conservation of natural resources does not extend to fish of this species, however broadly it may include suckers in a political campaign. The tarpon finally met the harpoon and the boat was saved. He who fights and wins the fray will live to run another day. That is not saying that Pinchot and next friend will ever be truly in the swim.

A LITTLE BROMIDE, PLEASE.
 A man at Venice went down in his cellar to pray or to get a bucket of coal, and met a fine specimen of Eve's friend. His serpentine grace coiled himself around the weakling, blazed defiance at humanity, and gave other evidence of the reality of his being. Seeing a snake, in the dim light of a cellar is a legitimate visualization. When a snake that can talk wriggles itself over the transom and winks one green eye and one pink one at the dog that is not there it is a sign that one requires a change of glasses.

USE AND FEATHERS.
 In New York City eggs are selling for 70 cents a dozen and it is predicted that they will go to 75 cents within a week. One time a ducky undertook to rob a hen-roost. On his way out of the coop with what he took to be a fine, fat hen the bird shrieked this protest, "For the Lord's sake, Sambo, let go of my wing. I'm no chicken; I'm a parrot and my name is Lila." Taking a strangehold on the bird's neck, Sambo replied, "Never mind, honey, about what you is; anything with feathers is a friend of mine." California might offer New York a shipment of seagull eggs, for it is possible that, under the circumstances, the Gothamites would be as gullible as Sambo.

The announcement by Senator Dixon of a meeting of the Bull Moons for reorganization raises the question, in what direction is the new organization to go. It has come to the brink and must either jump boldly into socialism or content itself with a programme quite as commonplace as that of older parties.

The "harvester trust" has given $1,000,000 for the establishment of an agricultural service bureau to be headed by Prof. Perry S. Holden of Iowa State Agricultural College. Prof. Holden is the great corn expert of Iowa. There seems to be a difference in "trusts."

The theater manager who would devise some means that would provide for a proportionate return to the ticket purchaser of a part of his money in case he did not like the show and went out after the first act would make a hit.

If they had only given the old man a chance the Sultan of Turkey would have shown that Balkan crowd how to get over an allotted distance of ground within a certain given time.

THE EDDIE SCANDAL.
 Developments seeping out of the Guy Eddie scandal are coming thick and fast. The growing stench has disrupted the Good Government Organization (ye Gods, what a name for such a gang—"Good Government," forsooth!) has produced a violent retching in the municipal administration and caused the spewing-out of that distinguished purifier and reformer, George Bak- ingpowder Anderson; has set the political bosses by the ears; has invited a special investigation of the whole mess by the grand jury; and has led that industrious bringer-of-libel-suits, Law Works, to run to cover.

all this smash of matter and crush of words, "Uncle Alack" seems to be unhurt. He dodged the lightning of popular wrath yesterday when he kicked his overzealous clerk, Anderson, out of his office and removed Little Chaste from his job in the Prosecuting Attorney's department.

The disclosures relative to the arrest and incarceration of Mr. Lloyd, because he had dared be a witness against Guy Eddie, prove the truth of the charges The Times has made against the tyrannical and conscienceless Goo-Goo ring. There are fellows active in the politics of that organization who would not hesitate to dynamite a building or slit a throat to punish an opponent. Their treatment of Lloyd was mild for them. The old Espee ring was unscrupulous, venal and dirty; but it never went to lengths common to its successors—it never sought to destroy political antagonists by bringing them down to the grave with persistent persecution.

The truth about these brutalities is coming out. When the grand jury investigation has been made nobody but a fanatic will remain unconvinced. We see the noisiest and most Pharisaical "reformers" of the lot spending the "pious fund" to protect lechery and punish truth-telling. The violent quarrel that has broken out among them will redound to the benefit of the public. "When thieves fall out, honest men get their dues." Not much longer will the people tolerate such a crew in the control of the city's affairs.

We wonder if it is true that George Bak- ingpowder Anderson really wanted to be cooked and wrote that letter to the Good Government Organization to the Mayor, to bring it about? If it was the aim and purpose of the letter, whoever wrote it, to decapitate Anderson, the scheme certainly worked. The Mayor rose beautifully.

Well, praise be to God, the end of a regime of hypocrisy and villainy and oppression is in sight. One of these days it will be possible for a decent merchant or business man to go back and forth and conduct his affairs in an honorable way in this town, without paying political tribute or being annoyed by some exasperatingly foolish ordinance or being jalled by some jejune jackanapes invested with a little brief authority.

ADVANCE AGENT OF ADVERSITY.
 Ex-Mayor P. H. McCarthy of San Francisco, the Advance Agent of Adversity, has been in town. His mission is said to be to bring the manufacturers and building contractors and employers of labor in Los Angeles to the same state of subjection to the unions as that which exists in San Francisco. His mission is to make of Los Angeles a closed-shop town, and to allow no employer of labor to run any other kind of a shop than a closed shop, a shop where only those men can work who wear the union-labor label, receive the union-labor wages, and limit the amount of the work they do to the maximum prescribed by union-labor bosses.

After Mr. McCarthy shall have "union- ized" Los Angeles [never!] and thereby closed half the manufacturing establishments in the city and driven away or pauperized non-union workers, he may give his valuable services toward procuring the enactment of the bill now before Congress to rescind the executive orders issued by President Taft and ex-President Roosevelt, which forbade government employees from organizing themselves into trades-unions for the purpose of prescribing the conditions of their employment.

It is claimed on behalf of labor unions that postoffice clerks and carriers ought to have a right to organize, fix their own wages and hours of work, and "strike" to enforce compliance with their terms—reserving the right to boycott and picket and, if necessary, beat any scabs who accepted the places they vacated.

If such a bill shall pass Congress why limit its operations to the Postoffice Department? Why not extend it to the army? It may readily be seen how greatly the efficiency of the army would be increased if there should be formed soldiers' unions, the members of which should refuse to march in the ranks with non-union soldiers, who should refuse to march at all or obey any order until their wages were increased, and unless turkey and terrapin should be added to their rations.

The Advance Agent of Adversity will not succeed in deluding the union laborites of Los Angeles into following his counsel. They will not lose their well-paid jobs in a fruitless endeavor to establish the closed shop in this city. Ex-Mayor McCarthy will return to San Francisco as Rodrigo returned to Venice after his fruitless campaign against Desdemona, "with less money and more wit."

A SIGNIFICANT EVENT.
 There are now between 20,000 and 25,000 Russian Jews in Los Angeles, according to a good authority. The Russian Jew is in a class by himself. He possesses the quick intelligence and the fluid intellectuality of the Russian, with the high ideal- ity and the stability of purpose that marks the Jew. The young Russian Jews have, to a large extent, thrown off restraint, although they are still bound by the tradition of their race. They are of no country and are free from conventions. Yet this class is today giving the world some of its greatest artists, authors and thinkers.

Russian Jews are flocking to this country as to a "Promised Land." The story of Mary Antin, as told in her book which is attracting such widespread attention, gives an insight into the character of these people and the causes that have generated such a mind as is revealed in her relation. The steadily-increasing influx of these people into this country must be productive

The Poet Philosopher.

Oh, now the vanquished statesman kicks and murmurs while the victor sings; but let's forget stale politics, and try to think of bigger things. If any man rears up and tries to thrash the threadbare issues over, let's blif him once betwixt the eyes and take him home upon a door. The land the dippy eagle guards without our efforts can make good; let's take the tin cans from the yards, and bank the house, and whack up wood. Let's see the kids have de- cent rags when to the schoolhouse they parade; our old palladium and flags and burl- ings do not need our aid. Let's fill our homes with true delight and see the wives and children laugh, while Freedom on her mountain height is sitting for a photo- graph. Let's help the wife who daily slaves among her tubs and pots and pans, the while the spangled banner waves above a crowd of also rans. Let's quit this thing of talking big of Vital Themes and People's woes, and give some bedding to the pig, and put away the garden hose. Oh, let us for a while be sane and fix the porch and mend the pump, and let the saucy old cam- paign lie dead and rotting at the dump.

Oldest Royal Family Extinct.
 [Chicago Tribune:] With the death of Prince Nicholas Lusignan in St. Petersburg ends the oldest royal line in the world. Prince Nicholas was the only son of Louis VI, King of Cyprus, Syria, and Jerusalem until the year 1378.

His house has reigned there since the days of the crusades, a matter of seven and a half centuries. The British govern- ment offered King Lusignan a handsome pension if he would formally renounce his claims and retire to some spot in the British Empire, but the monarch refused, saying he would rather die in seclusion than renounce his rights to his throne.

He was exiled from Cyprus and went to St. Petersburg, where his family was brought up. They all died in the greatest poverty, and Prince Nicholas ended his life in a public hospital the other day. This ancient line came from the town of Lusignan in France.

They were known in history as Counts of Poles till the eleventh century, when one of them became King of Cyprus and Jerusalem, taken from Moabites by the Knights of the Cross.

Will Divide Persia.
 It seems now inevitable that the Persian lamb should be torn in pieces and shared between the Russian bear and the British lion. Persia has for many years been maintained as a "buffer" state; that is, it furnishes a neutral border between Russian influence on the north and British influence on the south in Asia, and kept the two great encroachers apart. Five years ago England and Russia made a treaty under which they recognized each other's "spheres of influence" in Persia. This plan hasn't quite worked, and now Russian Minister Sassounoff has been to London to arrange a closer understanding about the division of the plunder. It is understood that England is willing to let Russia practically have her way in Persia on the understanding that Russia will on her side turn a blind eye on British plans of aggression in Tibet. Recently the Chinese have been trying to assert their sovereignty in Tibet, and it is believed that the British will have to put forth a stronger hand there. Thus it is that the small and helpless nations are "voluntarily" assimilated.

Of course, the argument in support of this policy is that if these small nations would behave themselves and maintain peace and order, the big nations would be glad to leave them alone and even to lend them a helping hand, but when they play the brigand they have to be taken in charge. It is only in this way that civilization can be extended over the earth, it seems.

A Modern Spartan Woman.
 [Chicago Inter Ocean:] Dr. Mary Walker of Washington—the lady who wears trousers—says she liked a man during her youth, but that he told her she would have to wear woman's clothes or he would not marry her. Therefore she gave him up.

We don't blame the man! Who would have the fact of a wife's "wearing the trousers" in the family parade to the world? But that doesn't prevent us from admiring the super-Spartan fortitude and consistency of Dr. Mary.

That's what we call making a sacrifice for principle! That's what we say is downright self-immolation! We don't wonder that Dr. Mary Walker advises women to go to the polls and vote, despite the fact that mere man says she shall not. A woman who could do what Dr. Mary Walker did would be willing to brave the law, the police, established institutions or anything else.

It was Gen. Taylor of the Boston Globe who said Dr. Mary Walker was the "only really self-made man" he ever knew.

All of 'Em Have Failed.
 [Louisville Courier-Journal:] Mr. Bryan asserted that the lunatic Schrank should not be the arbiter in a national election, and it is also plain that Frank Munsey's fifty-seven magazine writers failed in the attempt.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, 1912.—4 PAGES.

JIM GRIFFIN WILL REFEREE.

Bay City Man to Judge Wolgast-Ritchie Fight.

Names of Thirteen Good Once Sorted Over.

Both Fighters Are to Begin Training Today.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jim Griffin of San Francisco will be the referee for the Ad Wolgast-Willie Ritchie light-weight championship match on Thanksgiving Day. Tom Jones, representing Wolgast, and Willie Ritchie and his manager, Billy Nolan, met at Promoter Jimmy Coffroth's office this afternoon, and after two hours of discussion hit upon Jim Griffin as the man to fill the important position.

The Two Plucky Little Italian Boys Who Meet at Vernon Tonight.

Ritchie's adviser was loath to accept Griffin at first, declaring that while he held nothing against the local referee he preferred an official of more reputation. Griffin was acceptable to Jones from the first, and after a short deadlock Ritchie came out with the statement that Griffin would be acceptable to him, and that settled the question.

For a time it looked as if it would be necessary to pick out an eastern man for the position. The names of local referees were submitted, and one by one they were eliminated until Jones said that Griffin would be satisfactory to Wolgast. Willie's manager raised an objection here and for an hour the subject of referee was dropped.

Finally Coffroth, Jones, Ritchie and Nolan went into a private conference and emerged with the announcement that Griffin was the man selected.

CLUB EASILY PLEASED.

Only four names of local referees were mentioned. Promoter Coffroth called the meeting to order and submitted four men—Jack Welsh, Harry Foley, Eddie Hanlon and Jim Griffin—who would be acceptable to the club. Coffroth explained that they were the only ones who had ever refereed for him and he knew them to be capable officials.

Jack Welsh was present and promptly requested that his name should not be mentioned as he had retired for all time from the game of refereeing. Then Foley's name was mentioned and Coffroth paid the local man the compliment of being one of the best referees he had ever seen work in a ring. Jones, however, said that under no circumstances would he take Foley. He intimated that he had plenty of reasons for protesting. Willie Ritchie then spoke up and eliminated Eddie Hanlon on the ground that ill-feeling had existed between them for a number of years.

It was down to Griffin then, and Jones said he would take him. Willie's manager objected. Outside referees were then brought into the discussion. Ritchie asked Jones to submit some names and Eddie Smith of Chicago, Jack McGuigan and Billy Recap of Philadelphia, Billy Joel of New York, Dr. Barnes of New Orleans, Otto Flioto of Denver, George Blake of Los Angeles, E. W. Dickerson of Grand Rapids and Meyer Murray of Boston were mentioned as being favorable to Wolgast.

Willie's manager was considering Jack McGuigan of Philadelphia as the best man whom he knew in the outfit when the talk switched to local men.

COAST MEN FAVORED.

"Why, I don't see any reason for going outside of San Francisco for a referee," spoke up Coffroth. "Surely we have just as good if not better officials right here than they have in the East. It stands to reason that they are better. They give decisions whereas the eastern boys don't, and our men have more opportunity to pick up experience."

The conversation drifted to the subject of who had the most at stake. Promoter Coffroth declared that he had $20,000 invested in fight arena, was guaranteeing the boxers $20,000 and depended upon the boxing game to make his money.

"I have the most interest at stake," interrupted Jones. "Any time Wolgast or Ritchie in the ring we are betting $25 to 1. He is risking his title and that is worth many thousands."

"Well, so far as that is concerned, I have the best interest in the future of you all," said Ritchie's manager.

While the principals were deadlocked, Promoter Coffroth had a few comments to make as follows:

COFFROTH GETS BUSY.

"Doesn't it beat all to see these fellows having the whole say (referring to Jones and Ritchie and his manager) when I am the fellow who is putting up the money? I pay the $250 fee to the referee and do the promoting. The fact is that boxers have been spoiled in San Francisco. In every other town in the country the fight clubs have their official referees and the boxers must abide by the rules or go elsewhere."

"In Los Angeles they must accept Charley Epton. Philadelphia has Jack McGuigan. New York has John and Charley White, and so on all over the country. Instead of showing one man in their faces I submit four names and they surely should agree."

It all came out in the wash, however, and the party broke up with every one interested apparently satisfied.

GRIFFIN LOOKS GOOD.

Jim Griffin should fill the bill as the third man in the ring. His experience has been limited, but in the Abe Attell-Tommy Murphy and the One-Round Hogan and Frankie Burns bouts he handled himself well. Tomorrow both Ritchie and Wolgast will get down to training in earnest. The champion intends to do some boxing out at the Seal Rock House and Willie will continue his sparring at San Rafael.

AUSTRALIAN SPEED KING JOKE IN LOS ANGELES.

Tommy Moon, the Australian motorcycle champion who came to Los Angeles with the intention of showing the American riders how it was done on the other side, has disappeared, and no one seems to know where he is.

The Australian is considered unbeatable in his own country and after cleaning up all the records at home, decided to come to the United States. Arriving in San Francisco, he learned of the winter racing at the local Stadium and came south at once.

He brought his English machine with him and said there was not an American motorcycle built which could beat it. A try on the track showed the superiority of the American machine, however, as the fastest mile made by the Australian's machine was in the day time of fifty-nine seconds. There was not sufficient speed in the machine to climb the track.

The result of the trial was that Moon declared the 55 slant of the local track to be suicide and packed his machine and left town.

MEMSIC SAYS HE IS ALL IN.

"I guess I ain't got a right to get sussed; I'm a has-been and out, fightin' pikers' fights, an' now I'm clean, a nickel in my pocket. I had $1800 an' they took me up to Oregon to fight an unknown kid. He knocked me out clean in eight rounds. I'm all in."

George Memsic, at one time one of the greatest little battlers that ever donned a glove, face battered, hands trembling, altogether a pathetic shadow of the good youngster who gave Joe Gans his fight—leaned against the desk sergeant's window at Central Police Station shortly before sunrise yesterday morning, and tears in his eyes, conceded himself unable to "come back."

"Gans tore my ribs from my belt to my shoulder blade," he went on. "I've been on the slidin' board ever since. I can't whip nothin'. It'll be the same with Ad Wolgast. No man can have his heart torn out and hold a championship."

Dundee's people are prosperous fish merchants in New York.

BOUT TONIGHT IS PROMISING.

Conley and Dundee Should Set Very Stiff Pace.

Frankie Looks Best for Twenty-Round Distance.

Both Boys Equal in Games and Punching Power.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

Frankie Conley and Johnny Dundee are to meet tonight at Vernon in a twenty-round go. This is Dundee's first twenty-round contest and many may think that he will have a hard time to go the distance.

Any boxer that can go fast for ten rounds can surely go twenty. Twenty rounds is Frankie Conley's distance and it is here that he shines. I have seen Frankie in action in twenty round bouts and I have seen Johnny Dundee in his workouts. Dundee is a real little fellow with more science than Frankie, but like Frankie, shows a poor defense. We all know just how Frankie boxes. Dundee does a lot of unnecessary work that will do him little good unless he succeeds in landing his punches. Both boys are dead game and should set a fast pace from start to finish. I do not believe that either has any advantage in the punch.

Frankie can only box as we have seen him in his past contests. Scotty Monteth, says "Johnny Dundee will surprise you fellows when you see him in action. He is a much better man in a contest than when you see him in the training camp."

If he is better in his fights than he is in his boxing stunts, he has a great chance to win. But I am from Missouri and Scotty will have to prove it.

TETZLAFF-OLDFIELD MATCH SET FOR THE MOTORDROME.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

WITH Teddy Tetzlaff in the full limelight as one of the greatest road race drivers in the world Barney Oldfield's challenge to race the motor champion has set the local motor world agog. While motorists are handing the palm to Tetzlaff as the premier of them all, Oldfield has a hunch that he can trim either De Palma or Tetzlaff and he has selected Teddy as the first one to conquer.

The challenge from Oldfield calls for a match race on December 14 and 15 at the Motordrome in heats, best two of three to decide the winner. This race should prove one of the big events of the season as Oldfield has determined to come back into his world record form and already the work he has done on the dirt tracks both in the East and West show him to be driving as recklessly as he ever did in his palmy days.

This race would be on a board track, under the auspices of the American Automobile Association, and would attract many thousands of devoted speed fans. Oldfield holds the track record at the Motordrome, made in the "Biltmore Special." He may be lower that record at any time. It remains to be seen whether Barney is as good now as he believes he is. At Phoenix he drove a mile in 50 4-5 seconds.

Tetzlaff defeated Ralph De Palma on the Motordrome in a 100-mile

KILBANE WILL MEET ANY PUG WHO MAKES WEIGHT.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Johnny Kilbane authorized the statement tonight that he will fight any boxer who will make the featherweight limit—125 pounds—provided a suitable purse is offered. He let it be known that this applies to all fighters alike. The featherweight champion made this assertion when asked if he would agree to fight the winner of the Dundee-Conley fight in Los Angeles.

He denied that he was unwilling to risk the championship. "I have heard a good many of these criticisms," said Kilbane, "but they do not worry me. Every champion fears such criticism and I cannot expect to be made an exception. I am champion and I have a right to name the conditions under which I will fight. I am not asking anything unreasonable when I ask that all challengers fight me at my weight—the featherweight limit, 125 pounds. Of course I must be assured of a good sized purse too."

Kilbane has been freely criticized for refusing to fight Charley White of Chicago, who is to meet Pal Moore in Kenosha, Thursday evening. Kilbane points out that he is guided by the fact that White cannot make the weight. White is known as a "midget" in the prize ring.

Kilbane would not give a definite answer when asked if he would meet the winner of the Los Angeles fight. He merely said he did not discriminate and what he said about White applied to Dundee or Conley or any other boxer.

AN Lined Up.

BIG RACE CARD TO BE GIVEN THANKSGIVING.

BY GREY OLIVER.

ALTHOUGH slightly disheartened at the lack of patronage shown at the recent big one-day race meet, the directors of the Los Angeles Driving Club decided last night at a special meeting to give their usual matinee on Thanksgiving day at Exposition Park. The one-day meet, at which Joe Patchen II paced a mile in a fraction above two minutes, was under the auspices of the Los Angeles Harness Horse Association, but the attendance showed that the sport-loving public here has yet to be educated to the harness horse game without betting.

Secretary Ed Delaney stated last night that the programme for Thanksgiving day would be fully up to any ever presented by the Driving Club for there are all kinds of horses now at Exposition Park. There are 150 stable horses for the winter and it is expected that fifty more will arrive within the next two weeks. Delaney thinks the local track will have the "best water" in the history of the sport.

Charles Leconte reached here yesterday from Vancouver with a string of eight or ten horses and it is possible that more will come from the north this week. Additional stall room is being built for the accommodation of the horses.

The card for Thanksgiving is not definitely decided upon but there will be three events for trotters and three for pacers, in addition to several extra attractions.

After the Thanksgiving meet, at least one-half of the present card will be torn down and the remaining half moved forward to permit of work being commenced on the big new grand stand for which the sum of $50,000 is available, $30,000 of which was given by President C. A. Canfield of the Harness Horse Association and $10,000 each by the city and county officials. Trenches for the foundations for the stand were dug months ago, but actual building operations were to be delayed until after Thanksgiving.

The Harness Horse Association is well pleased with the prospects for the coming year, for many reasons, and with the new $50,000 grand stand assured, there is no reason why the harness horse interest cannot make great strides in this end of the state.

Too Much Class.

HOPPE EASILY DEFEATS SUTTON AT BALKLINE.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Winning the cue as if the spirit of Frank Tree and Wizard Schaefer dwelt within him, Willie Hoppe, in tonight's session of the 15.2 balk line billiard championship tournament, defeated George Sutton by the overwhelming score of 1,100 points to 140. Hoppe played with great speed and precision. His shots were astounding.

He finished with what now stands as the high record average of the tournament as his figure was 29.57. His runs were 187, 84, 88 and 77.

Sutton's play in the game was 35 and 21. At every stage the youthful professional executed in marvelous form.

George P. Sloman eliminated Yasuda, the Japanese, from the triple tie for second place by defeating him by the score of 160 points to 33. The veteran student finished splendidly with some marvelous bits of running, his average being 13.44 and his high runs 75, 77 and 41. The Japanese fell to an average of 5.11-40 and his runs were few and far between, the best being 44, 21 and 32.

The Japanese forced into the lead in the early stage but fell behind later on. Sloman managed to do better later on in the game when he came into his stroke, winning easily.

Both Hoppe.

YALE AND HARVARD WORK HARD FOR SATURDAY.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] There are busy days in New Haven and Cambridge. Yale and Harvard are working with all their might to put up the week's play in the football game, the battle of the gridiron next Saturday. Every man on the Yale team was at his post today, ready for the most important week of the season in preparation for the game with Harvard next Saturday.

The coaches were plainly disappointed over the team's showing against Princeton.

Both Yale and Harvard expected a close game, but both expected Yale to win. Both also realized that Princeton would be much stronger against Harvard and would play her limit, and that Yale was slow in development.

The team lined up exactly the same as against Princeton. Avery was one of the ends. Cooney and Pendleton, guards; Ketchum, center; Whelan, quarterback; Phillips and Spaulding, half-backs; and Fynn, full-back.

The sub were worked in the long special drill during the course of the afternoon. Besides this work, there was considerable place kicking. Fynn, Phillips, Talbot and Pendleton doing the work.

Harvard is working out with the squad. Yale coaches would like to use him at guard, but his ankle is stiff that Howe does not believe he will be of any use even on Saturday. Cornish is in the same condition.

CITRUS UNION ALUMNI DEFEAT PRESENT TEAM.

The Citrus Athletic Club, a basketball team composed of former Citrus Union High School stars, went to Avam yesterday afternoon and beat their successors, 34 to 29. The Athletic Club boys are college performers. Harvard being captain of the Occidental College quintette, with C. Daniels and Johnson as fellow members, while Malone and E. Daniels both attend U.C.

The game was fast and furious throughout and was featured by the teamwork of the Athletic Club men and the "whooting" of Johnson, who from the position of guard, scored more points than any other man on the field. The Athletic Club team is in the field to play any of the amateur teams in the south. The line-up: C.A.C. Thaxter (k) forward, G. Daniels Holman forward, Malone center, Stewart (k) guard, Johnson forward, E. Daniels forward, E. Daniels forward, E. Daniels forward.

Summary—Goals, Johnson 7, Stewart 4, Thaxter 4, G. Daniels 2, Malone 2, Johnson 2, Daniels 2, Holman 1, E. Daniels 1, Daniels 1.

MORE GUESSING.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Bob Mangoff, the Asia Minor wrestler, who will meet Charlie Cutler in the wind-up of the Globe Athletic Club's initial show Wednesday evening, predicts the defeat of the Chicago man. Cutler, though not ready for a hard bout, is confident he will turn the foreigner.

IMPORTANT FOOTBALL GAMES STILL COMING.

THOUGH the football season has been a decided success so far, some of the best and most important games are yet to be played. The remaining games are important because of the interstate feature of the competition.

Following is the schedule: Thanksgiving—Occidental and Oregon Aggies, at Occidental. Thanksgiving—U.S.C. and University of California, at Harvard Field. November 30—Pomona and Colorado School of Mines, at Claremont. Christmas—U.S.C. and L.A.A.C., at Harvard Field.

Quarterback Duffy Seay.

Occidental's wonderful little field general, who led the Tigers to the great victory over Pomona, Saturday. Coach Stanton of Pomona says that Seay is one of the greatest quarterbacks he has ever seen in action, and believes him to be the peer of any man at the position, playing in America today.

Nothing but Class.

WIEMAN AND SEAY ARE BIG OCCIDENTAL STARS.

Two Expert Football Men Have Helped Bring Victory in Many Games—Coach Pipal Has Created One of the Greatest Machines in the West—Pipal Warmly Praises Oxy.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

FOR many years football has been a great sport in the South, but never before has there been a season that could compare with the present one. Nowhere in the country have the fans been treated to such a great variety as has been served here. American and English football running side by side makes a combination hard to beat, especially so when the best teams in the West are seen in action in almost every game. Also the type of football played this season has been far above the average.

Last Saturday, at the Pomona Occidental struggle, an old Boston Tanager stated that the game played by the Huns and the Tigers was equal to that played anywhere in the country.

This season the Oxy Tigers stand out as the big team of the Southland. Never has any one thought it possible for the Tigers to turn out so perfect a gridiron machine. But perfect it is, and after the wonderful victory over Pomona, too much cannot be said in praise of the men who form what is, without a doubt, the greatest football team in the history of Southern California, playing the intercollegiate game.

Coach Stanton of Pomona congratulated the Occidental student body after the game and his opinions were expressed at the big run yesterday morning, when the team was cheered to the echo by the gallant Tiger rosters.

Stanton, who has played football in the East and who also has coached some of the best teams of that section, said that he considered the Tiger line as good as any in the country today and that Duffy Seay was the greatest field general and quarterback he had ever seen in action on a football field.

TWO BRIGHT STARS.

The success of the Tiger team can be attributed to several sources, but the work of Captain Wieman and Duffy Seay is probably the greatest factor. Wieman as a leader is great. Not only has he a good head but his ability to gain ground and stop the enemy under any circumstances sets an example for the rest of the team which is only natural to follow.

In Duffy Seay, the main-spring of the team, the Tigers have a man with a keen brain and an active body. In the game with Pomona he called his plays at the right time and in the "gridiron" machine, he was almost plugged at Pomona's weak spots after he had found them and when he got through with the famous Huskies and White machine, it was almost ready for the scrap heap. When we consider the fact that Duffy played all through the game with a badly splintered shoulder, his performance is even more wonderful than ever.

A misinformed person stated yesterday that the Tiger line was too heavy for the Pomona line. If he will look over the weights of the two teams as they faced each other in the game Saturday, he will find that Pomona averaged 169 pounds, while the Tigers went into the battle averaging 164. It was not weight that turned the trick, and the tide of war, but class and ability.

When speed, accuracy and football knowledge are combined in one team that team is very apt to beat anything sent against it. Pipal had great material this year, but he rounded several freshmen into varsity men to fill up the gaps, and should be credited with a large share of the signal victory.

The final test of the Tiger team is to come on Thanksgiving, when the Presbyterian pack will be sent into the ring with the famous Oregon Aggies. If the Tigers show against this aggregation the college on the hill will have come back after three years of reverses and can be rightly placed as one of the football powers of the West.

The following table shows the number of points scored by the Tiger players in the varsity games this year and also the number in which the points were made:

Player	Touchdowns	Goals	Points
Wieman	2	2	14
Foster	1	0	6
Dill	1	0	6
McCarty	1	0	6
Kirkpatrick	1	0	6
Yakley	1	0	6
Seay	1	0	6
Braden	1	0	6
Crawford	1	0	6
Edenburgh	1	0	6
Bats	1	0	6
Johnson	1	0	6
Jones	1	0	6
Totals	14	2	100

Wieman also kicked two field goals. Yakley forced a Long Beach man over his own line for a safety. Total scores: Occidental—48 touchdowns, 38 goals, 2 field goals, 1 safety; 333 points. Opponents—4 touchdowns, 3 goals, 1 field goal; 36 points.

WHITE CONFIDENT HE CAN DEFEAT MOORE.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.] CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Charley White says he can land 200 blows a minute and says he will easily defeat Pal Moore in their fight Thursday night at Kenosha, Wis.

"I've been doing a lot of practice on my punching bag," said White, "and one of my friends who is a close count told me I hit the buster 200 times in a minute. I will strike Moore and then I will seek a battle with Johnny Kilbane."

Miss Gibbons, the St. Paul middleweight, passed through here today with his manager, Eddie Reddy, for New York, where Gibbons will meet Eddie McGeary in a ten-round bout. Gibbons admits McGeary is a great fighter but believes he can beat him in a ten-round mill.

Made from Virginia Tobacco Smoked Everywhere

The flavor that captivated the aristocracy of England four hundred years ago, when Sir Walter Raleigh introduced tobacco there, has since become popular with smokers in every corner of the world. The rich yet mild taste of the native Virginia leaf is appreciated by the men who prefer an all-Virginia smoke.

ON THE LINE OF SCRIMMAGE

BY OWEN R. BIRD

Hunt to Tackle Miners.
The Pomona Miners will wind up the football season on November 26, when Stanton will send his leaves against the Colorado School of Mines at Claremont. In meeting the Miners, the Blue and White will run up against a team nearly as strong as the Oxy Tigers. The Miners recently defeated the University of Denver by a score almost as great as that handed to the Miners by the Tigers here. If this is the case Stanton will have to rebuild his team for the coming game.

After the affair last Saturday with Oxy the Pomona squad is pretty badly shot to pieces. With two weeks in which to work, Stanton should be able to bolster up some of the weak spots. But Pomona was not bad in the game with the Tigers and did not show a weak team, but rather lost to the Tigers because Pip's men were so good.

The Trojans' Last Fling.
On Turkey Day the U.S.C. Trojans will have one last fling at fame and revenge. On this date the University of California will be brought south for the final game of the intercollegiate football season. The entire form of the team at U.S.C. has changed since the season at the hands of the Warriors. The team has opened up its attack and is getting away with more speed and better play than ever before. The addition of Dora at second five has been a great help to the backfield, while Lund as a center three is a decided success. Coach Manning is seriously thinking of putting Len Livernash in the backfield at one of the wings, as Rush Meadows is not likely to play again this season. Len can carry the ball like a locomotive, but is a little weak on kicking to boot.

High School Championship.
Tomorrow afternoon the Los Angeles High School football team will clash for the championship of the city high schools, with Manual Arts High School.

For the first time in many days it looks as though the Hill Top warriors were in for a trimming, as the odds are slightly in favor of the Veterans Mechanics. The Blue and White team has been running in several runs this season and has not as yet rounded into its championship form. On the other hand the Manual team is going right and will be at its best tomorrow on the home field.

The winner of this game will be in line for the title of the South and will only have to play one more game. This comes the clash with the High School representing the northern part of the State for the State title.

To Develop Ruggers.
At the close of the regular football season at U.S.C., there will be an inter-fraternity series of Rugby games played. This has been arranged in order that all the men in the college can have a chance to get into some kind of sport before the football season really closes. Besides the inter-fraternity games there will be inter-club and club matches played and every man in the University will have had his chance to show something in the way of football ability. This is about the only way in which to develop material for the coming seasons. The University has a long up-grade pull ahead in trying to build up competition for the North, when the institutions of that part of the State have had more than five years' start in the English game.

"E.C." Monogram Club.
By the time the present football season is over, the "E.C." Club at the University of Southern California will be a fact and not a long sought feature, as in the past. Manager Warren Board is now taking steps to get in touch with all the alumni members of the club and to get them put them on the honor roll. The idea of the clubhouse is something similar to that of the California Club at the State University of Teaneck, N.J. The house will be open to "letter men" and a training hall will be kept up for the athletes who have to live away from home. All former varsity men of U.S.C. are requested to get in touch with Manager Board at once.

L.A.A.C. Christmas Game.
The Christmas Day games between the U.S.C. Rugby team and the L.A.A.C. squad will be of lively interest. The Trojans will break up training after the Thanksgiving Day

FAMOUS MARATHONERS BEATEN ON THE DESERT.

BY AL G. WADDELL

THE United States was not represented by her best distance runners in the Olympic games at Stockholm, according to Joe Shoulder,

Philip Zeyouma,

Winner of the Times Modified Marathon.

director of athletics at Sherman Institute.

It is the belief of Shoulder, that the desert runners of Arizona can also supply the endurance men to compete successfully with the distance runners of those countries where the simple life is led.

Zeyouma, the little Hopi, who came down from Sherman at the last minute and won the Times modified marathon, last season, is from the same tribe as Tewanima, the little Indian from Carlisle School, who was the only member of the American team at Stockholm able to score in the long-distance runs. Last summer the two runners went home to Arizona to spend their vacations, and a race was arranged between the Carlisle runner and the Sherman champion.

The distance was twelve miles. Tewanima appeared in his Carlisle track suit and Zeyouma wore the Sherman colors. As the race was about to start, some of the older men of the tribe said the boys did not look like able runners.

This insult was hardly felt by the younger "hops" and Tewanima said, "If you don't like our looks, get in and show what you can do."

The race was promptly accepted and a number of the older "red-men" started. They were no running shoes nor track suits, merely decorated coats and removing their shoes.

Both Zeyouma and Tewanima were hopelessly beaten. The pace was too much for them and at the six-mile post, both the trained athletes fell out, leaving the race to the barefoot runners of the tribe.

Shoulder did not remember the name of the winner, but said he was a man about 40 years of age, who looked like he was dying of consumption.

"Now, don't it look to you like there are some great runners out there on the desert, who would make a good showing against the distance runners of other nations?" asked the old football hero with a laugh.

"I believe I will get busy and develop some real marathoners for the Olympic team next year."

HOPINS' MARK ACCEPTED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) The high jump of 6 ft. 4 in. made by C. L. Hopkins in a dual meet at Leland Stanford Jr. University on March 29 last, was accepted by the world's record by the Amateur Athletic Union today. The committee also accepted eleven records made by American athletes at the recent Olympic games in Stockholm.

MAYOR KICKS GOAL.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) A football game by eleven girls styled the "Vassar championships," though none of them ever saw Vassar, and a man team, advertised to be played here Sunday, was stopped just before the ball was kicked off by the Mayor and a delegation of ministers.

WHAT VAN COURT THINKS OF WOLGAST-RITCHIE GO.

Old Bower and Trainer Picks Champion to Win Very Easily, for He Is a Better and Harder Puncher—Declares Challenger Is a Very Much Over-rated Prize-fighter.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

over-rated boxer and is as Joe Mandol said, "too mechanical." In his fight with Welsh he did one particular thing all through the twenty rounds. He would take a few quick steps and then lead with his left and right at Welsh's head. He also proved to me that he is not a biter.

Ritchie will have to improve much more than Wolgast has to win.

Wolgast is fast recovering from his operation and is getting better every day. He also has much more courage than Ritchie when it comes to taking punishment.

Ritchie has been given credit for putting Ad down for the count when they last met. But take it from me, if Ad puts Wolfe down, he will stay the full count.

But I consider, whom I consider one of the best match-makers and one of the best judges of a fighter in America, said that Ritchie could make the 150-pound mark and be good and strong and at his best.

I have always taken a lot of work in what Nolan has said, but this is one time that I think he has got it wrong.

Wolgast is a much harder hitter than Ritchie. He has also shown in his past contests that many of the clever fellows are unable to keep away from him.

Ritchie has never shown anything of this kind to me, so I pick Wolgast to win easily.

RITCHIE OVER-RATED.

In my opinion, Ritchie is a much

The Dr. King of Donald Bowles was also very good.

But after Miss Vaughan, the biggest honor came to Little Gertrude Short, who played that dearest and most delightful of little boys, David.

Orpheum.

Some high melodramatic tragedy tears the air at the Orpheum this week, some good melodramatic comedy spreads ripples, for Amelia Bingham has arrived with her "big moments from great plays," the great plays selected for yesterday being largely from Sardou's "The Sign of the Cross" and "The Sign of the Cross."

The foremost "ripples," of course, are caused by Miss Bingham's delightful impersonation of that delectable queen of the tube, Mme. Eugenie Grandet, on the occasion of her first meeting with the other Queen of France. We see the big heart of Eugenie, and the broad comedy is given, that in which the outraged woman slabs the destroyer of her happiness. Miss Bingham's work here has power and dignity. The Godiva episode is pathetically pathetic, though the husband's attitude toward the woman who saved his life by posing for an artist in "the altimeter" is not very commendable, especially as he has had plenty of time to find out what a very noble woman she is.

The most highly entertaining number on the programme this week is that of Robert and Lawrence Ward, short boy and boy who so tall that he looks "like the afternoon shadow of somebody else." The Wards, who are little boys with monodies, awfully English, "know," and their fun-making is about as good of its kind as you find anywhere. Of course, the matter of jokes makes most of the fun. But the Wards are clever dancers, too, very graceful on the light, fantastic.

Nellie Nichols is an attractive girl who sings songs with many foreign accents, including coon. Her best hit is the song of the Yiddish girl who was half Irish, and who had some difficulty in pleasing Papa and Mama. Cohen is a matter of dress, speech and the food she ate.

This, Royal Hawaiian Serenaders serenade very much in the manner of some of our criteria orchestras, and create no sensation of novelty. There are ears to which primitive harmonies are the highest music, and these are no doubt pleasantly thrilled by the Hawaiians' loud and unmodulated voices.

Joseph Jefferson and Felice Morris remain for another week with their clever travesty, "In 1939," and so do Mae Melville and Robert Higgins in that laughable act "Just Married," and so does the ever welcome "Slaves."

Pantages.

A heart-clutching little sketch, which, oddly enough, is full of laughs too; a diving girl, and a freak act, lead a zest and variety to the bill at Pantages this week, while a male trio, some clever bicycle riders, and a xylophone soloist, round out an entertainment that makes the time pass with astonishing rapidity.

"Devere of the Chorus" is the sketch. In it, an old timer in the chorus feels drunkness in order to let a new girl have her first chance. That's the story in brief, but the statements given are not the least bit of an idea of the ingenious simplicity and buoyant ambition of the girl who sees visions of stardom rising up before her and who naively confesses to having but a nickel in her purse; nor of the other, whose slang and whose downiness cloak a tender heart. Devere make up on stage, and the transformation is wonderful—an eye opener for the baldheaded row. Eleanor Otis plays that part capitally, while Genevieve Schrader is the new girl. By the way, its well worth seeing.

Nellie Schmitt is the diving girl. They say she has done all sorts of stunts around "Frisco. Whether she has, or not makes no difference, as she is a very good actress, for her diving is graceful, and her figure as delightful as a perfect piece of ebony statuary. No indeed, she is not colored, but her bathing suit is Charles Deles and Grace Orma are the freak act. Not that Grace

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

PASADENA.
IS RECOGNIZED
BY UNCLE SAM.Pasadena Explorer Is Asked to Visit Washington.Oak Knoll Residents Organize for Beauty's Sake.Major Thum and Water Commission to Inspect.

PASADENA, Nov. 19.—The United States Geological Survey has been prompt to open negotiations with the Pasadena Explorer, the Pasadena Explorer, who returned from his expedition to the north coast of Alaska, only a short time ago, for the valuable information he has brought back.

The explorer yesterday received a letter from the acting head of the department and as a result he may have to forego the winter in Pasadena with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Lefingwell, of San Rafael Heights, that he has looked forward to and go on to Washington.

Lefingwell brought back with him a chest of maps and charts of over 500 miles of the North Alaska coast and a large collection of fossils taken from different points. The fossils have already been sent on to Washington. It required three years and a half time to do the work and he was obliged to pace off the entire distance.

At a meeting to be held tomorrow night at the home of A. M. Drake on Hillcrest avenue preliminary plans will be taken for the organization of an Oak Knoll Improvement Association, the object of which will be to see that the millionaire suburb of Pasadena is preserved in its beauty and now has. The organization will enter into many things of interest to residents of this section.

One of the chief assets of Oak Knoll is its winding roads and lanes, where the trees have been left in their natural state, and where the effects of nature have been sought rather than those of landscape architecture. The residents of the district, among which are many of national prominence, are determined that the suburb shall retain its beauty. Hitherto there has been no organization to look after local matters.

TO SEE AQUEDUCT.
Major Thum, the members of the City Water Commission and others left yesterday for a trip down the line of the Los Angeles Aqueduct. The major started before departing that the formal application for 500 inches of Owens River water, which was authorized by the Council a short time ago, will not be made until their return.

The object of the trip will be to see just what the aqueduct is like, just what water will be received and how it will come if purchased.

The party is made up of the Mayor, J. M. Harvey, T. D. Allen, Fred E. Wilcox and M. E. Wood. W. R. Harbert and J. R. Glendon are to join it at Mojave, from which town the automobile trip will be started.

One of the water commissioners, C. F. McAllister, is unable to go. Councilman W. T. Root will act as chief executive of the city in Mayor Thum's absence.

NO DAYS OFF.
The City Commission, which recently received several requests from different civic organizations that the members of the police department be given a day or week of leisure, at yesterday's session announced that they cannot so arrange it. The reason given is that the city cannot afford to increase the number of patrolmen until the coming of the new year.

Chief Wood presented a communication, accompanied by a letter from the City Attorney's office, holding that the policemen do not come under the provisions of the recently-enacted State law regarding compulsory free days for employees, although it is held that there is no legal reason why the commission may not give the policemen the day a week that has been asked for if they so desire.

The only ray of hope for the blue-coats came in a remark made by Commissioner Hertel to the effect that if the plan is later to be followed out the cost should be estimated and included in next year's budget for the department.

BRINGS HIS HOUSE.
The latest to come to Pasadena and bring his house along with him is D. W. Mix. He has set up at No. 1918 North Garfield avenue, a dwelling that he took apart and packed like the scenery of a theatrical company is folded, and brought from Oregon, where he formerly lived. The roof was put into sections with the shingles left on them and there were pieces of the walls with the windows in them.

TO OPEN NEW SCHOOL.
According to W. W. Ogier, president of the Board of Education, it is very probable that the new Polytechnic High School will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the second semester, February 10, next, and that the buildings will then be opened for use. Instead of next fall, as planned.

OGIER SAYS THAT this may be possible, but that in any event the buildings will not be occupied until they are completed. Two of the chief ones of the group, the Jane Addams building and the Louis Adams building, are now practically done.

Some of the members of the Board of Education are anxious to have the pupils enjoy the advantages offered by the new school buildings as soon as possible. Whatever is done, the 1913 plan will hold its commencement at the new school.

FIVE MILES OF LIGHTS.
The petition to the City Council to make Los Robles avenue a lighted boulevard has now gained the signatures of so many property owners on that thoroughfare that the limits have been extended to include about five miles of the street, between Washington street and Huntington drive. A committee has been appointed to determine on the style of post and

RAT CAUSES PANIC ON A BEACH CAR.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 17.—A panic reigned on a Redondo-avenue car this morning, filled with girl students of the Polytechnic High School, when the car stopped for a railroad crossing and a man named Martin started to leave the car. A big gray rat emerged from his pocket as he arose and ran up to his shoulder and around his neck. The girls screamed and one or two became hysterical, while Martin, investigating the quivering sensation about his body and neck, gave one startled yell and leaped for the street, where the rodent left him. Martin thinks the rat crawled into his pocket while the coat was hanging in a closet and lured by the riding motion, was disturbed only by the stoppage of the car.

WILL DIVERT YUMAITES.

Owners of Venice Shows Pack Up a Few of Them for a Rehearsal in the Desert.

VENICE, Nov. 18.—Following an appeal by the business men of Yuma, Ariz., for a week's taste of the attractions of the Venice Yuma show, the owners of the show, twenty amusement men of Venice left for Yuma yesterday and today, taking with them enough of their amusement enterprises to satisfy the curiosity of the Yumaites. The Yuma Chamber of Commerce was of the opinion that Venice could furnish a week of thrills if any city could, and so sent for the wild animal show, the Ferris wheel and other attractions and a concession. Gus Nierdorf, of the Ferris wheel, went along as general "spieler" for the Venice amusements. They will be back Saturday.

COOLING DEVICE.

Having secured a patent on an auto engine cooling device, Philip Tolegryn and Chester Murphy, mechanicals, formerly connected with the Midway Garage, have sold their invention to an eastern firm for a reported consideration of $15,000. Before the sale, Tolegryn left for the East yesterday stating that they had received $3000 as first payment for their invention. None of their fellow workers in the garage knew the details of the invention.

NEWS BRIEFS.

One of the biggest public meetings of the year will be that of tomorrow night in the Auditorium, when the public-spirited men of Venice get together to form plans for an unusual campaign of a publicity for Venice. Mayor Holbrook will probably preside and Tom W. Pryor, James W. Lawrence, Jr., City Trustee McCarver, W. A. Remie and others will speak. Free will for publicity funds may be made at the meeting.

J. H. Hardin died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. H. Scott, on Cabrillo canal. He had been ill for some weeks. He came to Venice last April from Moberly, Mo., where he was a business man. He leaves two sons, Charles H. Hardin, claim agent for the United Railroads of St. Louis, and J. H. Hardin, Jr., of the Denver Times and a daughter, Mrs. Scott.

WATTS NOTES.

WATTS, Nov. 18.—At the election held today the Citizens' Progressive League elected officers as follows: P. A. Lebach, president; vice-president, L. J. Fay; Mrs. Rose Huxley, secretary, and Mrs. A. M. McCay, treasurer, were re-elected without opposition. The general welfare of the community is the chief concern of the organization and a number of public improvements were suggested. The attention of the Council is to be called to several matters, which, it is thought, will be of great importance to the city, as well as the convenience of its citizens.

Local transfer concerns report that they are bringing in a number of new families each week. Quite a few come from Los Angeles and three families moved here from Redondo. Rentable houses are about a scarce as can be imagined, while new homes are being built in all parts of the city. Contractors report that they have all the work they can attend to, and now Los Angeles firms are also erecting houses in this city.

S. Stanford, while lifting some heavy timbers in the course of his work as a carpenter, hurt himself internally and was taken to a Los Angeles hospital, where he is now passing through an operation. He is in a critical condition.

Much speculation has been indulged in by local aspirants for the position of postmaster of Watts, since the Democrats have elected their man for President. However, the local postmaster will not be disposed of as a reward for political service to any Democrat, but will go to some man after he has duly taken the civil service examination and secured a satisfactory grade.

ODD MALADY.Long Beach Man Dies After an Operation.Presbyterian Pastor Upholds

Wife Revoked.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 17.—Attending and consulting physicians are puzzled over the malady of James H. Carner, a local grocer, who was attacked last Thursday with hiccups which have continued ever since with only brief respite. Every known remedy has been used with little effect and the physicians are at the point where they practically confess themselves baffled.

Mr. Carner was taken to a local hospital last Wednesday and on Thursday morning submitted to an abdominal operation which was successful, but a few hours after the hiccups set in and the physicians are unable to state positively whether the malady is caused by the anesthetic or some kidney or liver trouble. Last night Mr. Carner secured an hour's sleep, but today his condition is regarded as critical.

PASTOR APPROVES.

Rev. O. H. Mason of the Presbyterian Church, in his sermon last night commented on the attitude assumed by some prohibitionists in criticizing the acts of Councilmen who voted to submit the alternative liquor proposition granting some privileges to Hotel Virginia, and said:

"I think Council did a wise thing in granting the alternative liquor proposition. This is a free country and every man has a right to his own opinion, and therefore the other side has the same rights that we have in this respect. This is a fair and open fight. I believe the opposing faction will be slow to win. Let us contend with them and they fight this to finish and make the initiative ordinance a part of the charter."

"I believe in letting the best thing that we can get. If I lived in Chicago and high license was the best we could get I would be in favor of that." Further along the pastor took the ground that the alternative was a rich man's fight and intended to deprive the poor laboring man of his rights in the matter and thought if hotel privilege was to be granted it should be for hotels of ten rooms or less as well as the more pretentious hostelry.

PLANS COMPLETE.

The City Engineer's department has almost completed the plans for the station to be used for the proposed high pressure salt water system to be installed for heat in the city. The station will be located in the business section, and it is expected that the entire plan will soon be submitted to the Council. The station is to be of reinforced concrete, 10 feet high, and two stories in height, the upper floor to be used as a residence for the pump man.

Provision will be made for the initial installation of three pumps. The pumping plant will be built on the pier in the inner harbor, insuring quiet water at all times and also less danger of clogging the pumps with sand which would occur in open water. Deep water can also be secured alongside the docks, thus requiring less pipe and doing away with a stationary terminal station on a float anchored out at sea.

TO SET WILL ASIDE.

Edwin S. Brown of this city has brought suit to have the will of his late wife, Ida M. Brown, who died in 1911, set aside. The will, which in question gave the deceased's entire estate to her sons, George W. Cole and Edwin C. Brown, cutting the widow out of the will, was made by Mrs. Brown's death occurred at Paltan and in his petition Brown alleges that she was not competent to make a last will and testament. In her will Mrs. Brown named P. E. Hatch as administrator of the estate, and J. W. Tucker and Mrs. Marjorie Squires as trustees of her heirs, who are minors. About two weeks ago one part of the estate was sold by the administrator for $12,500.

CAR STOLEN.

A Maxwell car was reported to the police today as stolen from the Western Boat Works, on the inner harbor. A motorcycle cop was sent out and soon returned with the thieves whom he caught at Fifteenth and American, where they had stopped to get a fresh supply of gasoline. The boys, who gave their names as Joe Willis and Victor Davis, claimed that they were only out for a joy ride and had no intention of stealing the machine. Both, however, were certified to the Juvenile Court.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The South Coast Cannery Company, located on the inner harbor, closed down today and will not reopen until May 1, their supplies being the canning of tuna, the season for which has now closed. During its three and a half months' run the cannery employed 150 people and put up 800 cases of canned tuna, all of which has been marketed. The company paid out about $25,000 in wages.

Mrs. Sarah Jones, aged 51, died last night at her home on East Tenth street, following a fall from her back steps two weeks ago. Mrs. Jones, who was an extensive property owner in Long Beach, was a native of California and had lived in Long Beach fifteen years. She leaves a son, Col. Thaddeus Jones, Tenth Cavalry, U.S.A.

INJURED IN COLLISION.

Sierra Madre Couple Thrown from Their Car and Death May Follow the Accident.

MONROVIA, Nov. 18.—Late yesterday an auto accident occurred which may result in the death of Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Brown of Sierra Madre.

Dr. and Mrs. Brown were coming from a day's trip to their residence and were driving along Foot all boulevard, about a mile and a half east of Duarte, on the right-hand side of the road, proceeding at a rate of not more than twelve miles an hour. A heavy touring car, driven by Dr. T. C. Lowe of No. 1417 South Hoover street, Los Angeles, approached, driven about thirty miles an hour, and when about fifty feet from Dr. Brown's car, swerved sharply to the left. Dr. Brown, fearing that the oncoming car would strike his own, in turn drew to the left—toward the center of the highway. At the same instant Dr. Lowe swung his machine back to the right, with the result that the two cars crashed together, their momentum carrying them into the field at the side of the road.

Dr. Brown, who has been an invalid for years, was thrown forward upon the steering wheel, which struck him in the pit of the stomach. Mrs. Brown was hurled violently from the car, falling fifty feet away, in the center of the road. When picked up she was unconscious and bleeding profusely at the mouth, ears and nose. The victims of the accident were immediately conveyed to the Monrovia Hospital, where four physicians were called to attend to them. Dr. and Mrs. Brown's condition. Mrs. Brown has at this time partially recovered, but is in a very serious condition, as the attending doctors fear internal injuries. Dr. Brown is conscious, but is suffering severely.

Dr. Brown is a retired professor, formerly from New York City, who has been living for the past nine months at Sierra Madre, the home of his wife. He is a veteran of the Civil War, having served as captain of the Sixth Ohio Cavalry. For over four years he has been a member of the United States in search of a cure for his ailment and since coming to California had been in better health than for years. The chances for his complete recovery from the accident are lessened on account of his advanced age.

Home Mission Week Is Being Generally Observed by Pomona Churches—Short News Stories.

POMONA, Nov. 18.—Home mission work is being generally observed by all of the local Protestant churches, the observance having commenced yesterday and will be continued until Saturday. The meetings are intended to arouse enthusiasm for home missionary work and this evening at Calvary Baptist Church a union meeting was held at which Rev. Dr. Spurgeon, who had been in the city, delivered an interesting address upon the home mission work. Tomorrow night a union home mission meeting will be held at the First Methodist Church when addresses will be given by Rev. William Allen Parker, head of the department of philosophy of Pomona College. He has been closely connected with the immigration problem on the Atlantic Coast.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The Pomona Woman's Club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. R. Reed on East Holt avenue. Miss S. N. Towne and Mrs. E. T. Robinson will assist Mrs. Reed in entertaining. The general subject to be considered will be "Nations That Come Back."

A bulletin giving a complete resume of irrigation conditions in Pomona Valley has been compiled by C. E. Tait, government engineer, who has charge of government irrigation investigations in Southern California. The results of irrigation by pump, of be of reinforced concrete, 10 feet high, and two stories in height, the upper floor to be used as a residence for the pump man. The results of irrigation by pump, of be of reinforced concrete, 10 feet high, and two stories in height, the upper floor to be used as a residence for the pump man.

It has been stated that by reason of the high rates paid for electric lighting by residents in Pomona and some other places, the Southern California Edison Company was able to make the extremely low rate which is operative in Pasadena in competition with the municipal electric plant there, and there has been considerable feeling over the matter by residents here, as also over the rate charged for gas, which is higher than in many other cities.

The funeral of James W. Kedrick was held from the funeral parlors of Hanson & Bowers on East Second street, yesterday, Rev. C. R. Hudson officiating. The remains were shipped to the State of Washington for interment.

Henry Wood, a veteran of the Civil War, died at midnight at his home on West Fourth street. The deceased was 78 years old and was a member of the First Minnesota Cavalry. The funeral will be held under the auspices of Vicksburg Post, and interment will be made at Spring Lake, Iowa.

Rev. C. H. Scobee of Santa Ana occupied the pulpit at Pilgrim Congregational Church today in a sermon with Rev. Albert P. Davis, who preached at the Santa Ana church.

ACCIDENT OR SUICIDE?

Mrs. Kate Brand, 45 years old, wife of John Brand, No. 212 North Grand avenue, died at the Receiving Hospital yesterday morning from the effects of an overdose of laudanum. Whether it was taken by accident or with intent to commit suicide, is not known. The body was removed to the Connell mortuary. Mrs. Brand, it is said, had been addicted to the use of drugs. Brand thinks she accidentally took an overdose of the poison.

Felony Indictment.

and Fred M. C. Choate, a deputy in the office of the City Prosecutor, was forewarned two days ago, it became a fact yesterday.

HOW ANDERSON WENT.

"Get your hat and get out," said the Mayor, curtly, yesterday morning to his secretary, Anderson, who had no answer. He gathered his papers, took his hat and left the office.

The manner of Anderson's dismissal by the Mayor recalls the story of a poor wretch who once boasted that the Prime Minister of England had actually spoken to him. "What did he say to you?" somebody asked. "He said, 'Get out of here, you answered the braggart."

Perhaps Anderson some day will swell with pride as he relates that Mayor Alexander once spoke to him. "Get your hat and get out," it was the Mayor said.

THIRD HEAD TO FALL.

Acting City Prosecutor Nimmo could not discharge Choate in person yesterday, for the deputy did not put in an appearance. His place, however, vacant, according to the Mayor. The chief executive intimated that he had another dismissal in mind. He would not say whether he meant Guy Eddie, suspended City Prosecutor and moral censor.

CLARE E. SEBASTIAN, formerly a reporter on the Morning paper and Chief of Police Sebastian's secretary for the past six or eight months, is slated for the vacant secretaryship of Guy H. Hill, Jr., another newspaper man. It is said, will be appointed as the City's secretary.

Both moves were made at an early hour yesterday morning after the Mayor and Sebastian conferred together in the latter's office. The two went to the City Hall. Without any formality the Mayor stepped across to Anderson and gave him his dismissal. He had previously seen Acting City Prosecutor Nimmo about the discharge of Choate.

Nimmo, in the course of a statement, the reasons for discharging Deputy Choate, said: "With reference to complaints against George and Guy Eddie, Mr. Choate and Mr. Nicholson, at the request of former Police Officer Lloyd, and gave him his dismissal. I have in my possession now, and from my personal knowledge of what took place and details furnished me by others, I am convinced that no proceedings should be filed against them. I therefore have refused to file any complaint at this time. The course, would file a complaint provided the evidence warranted it, but I am firmly convinced that it does not."

CLARE SEBASTIAN.

The City Hall was the rendezvous for scores of political friends of Anderson and Choate all day. S. C. Graham, William F. Bryant, Dunn, W. R. Williams and F. V. Owen, all Good Government organization leaders, or close followers, conferred together in the corridor of the second floor of the City Hall. Shortly after, Graham, who was formerly president of the organization, and now a member of the Public Service Commission, entered the Mayor's office and remained there for an hour. He declined to disclose the nature of the interview, but from the talk about the corridors it is presumed he asked the Mayor to reconsider the summary dismissal of Anderson and Choate and make terms with the Good Government Organization.

Mayor Alexander declined to discuss in detail threats of a recall said to have been made by the officers of the Good Government Organization. He denied by both Lewis R. Works and Secretary Owen.

The Mayor did say, however, that any intimation that he knew of the alleged facts concerning the plan to entrap Lloyd in a supposed illegal taking of money was absolutely untrue. He applied the short and ugly word to that report.

"When it is intimated that I knew the inside facts concerning the proposed arrest of Lloyd they fabricate," said the Mayor. "And insinuations that I have instigated Mr. Anderson to employ private detectives without the knowledge of Chief of Police Sebastian are also untrue. I shall not tolerate any attempt to interfere with his jurisdiction of the police department."

The Mayor also stated in substance that his reason for discharging Anderson and Choate was because of their alleged activity on behalf of Guy Eddie. He also declared Anderson's friends could not dictate to him.

POLICE AFFIDAVITS.

Officers Wedge and Wolfe, who made the arrest of Lloyd on Thursday night at the command of Anderson and Choate, have made affidavits. It is understood, which are now in the possession of the District Attorney. It is asserted that both officers swear that Anderson gave them money, part of which was given to Lloyd to be used as evidence against him if the proposed charge of accepting a bribe had been substantiated. The marked $10 gold piece which was one of the exhibits before the grand jury.

D. A. Johnson, special police officer, and Lloyd, were closeted with District Attorneys and Asst. Dist. Atty. Ford yesterday morning. Both made affidavits and later went over some of the evidence with Deputy Shannon.

The retention of Blair in the coming investigation, leads some to believe that Guy Eddie's alleged delinquencies will be made a matter of grand jury investigation. Inasmuch as Eddie's friends have been beginning to declare that his arrest was a "frame-up," it is possible that the members of the inquisitorial body will investigate his acts and conduct while holding office.

H. J. Gelsler, one of Eddie's lawyers, was at the District Attorney's office yesterday, presumably in the interests of his client. Eddie's trial, which is now set for December 5, may be continued until a later date because of the grand jury investigation.

LOYD TO SUE.

Lloyd stated positively that he will bring civil suits against Anderson and Choate for alleged false imprisonment and one against Anderson for slander.

The members of the District Attorney's staff, who began preparations yesterday for the grand jury investigation, stated that Cecil Nicholson and Jack Arlington would undoubtedly be compelled to appear before the grand jury, if the story told by Nicholson is true. He was trying to get even with Lloyd for the latter's participation in a raid upon a poker game in a hotel. Before he dropped from sight Saturday night Nicholson made several conflicting statements, says the police.

Mrs. Queenie Mack Nicholson, who has taken oath to the statement that her husband said he had been given a large sum of money by "somebody" in the Mayor's office, "will also be a witness.

Lloyd, Johnson and Chief Sebastian will probably be the first three witnesses today. Officers Wedge and Wolfe may not be called before tomorrow.

Newspaper men who interviewed the principals in the present political imbroglio may also be summoned. The names will be made known when they are under subpoena.

CODE PROVISIONS.

Section 236 of the Penal Code reads as follows:

"False imprisonment is the unlawful violation of the personal liberty of another."

Section 237, the latter part of which relates to the same, reads as follows:

"False imprisonment is punishable by fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not more than one year or both. If such false imprisonment be effected by violence, fraud or deceit it shall be punishable by imprisonment in State Prison for not less than one nor more than ten years."

It alleged that Lloyd suffered false imprisonment by reason of the fraud and deceit of those who conspired to make it appear that he had committed a crime, to wit, felony, and that he was actually in jail for more than twelve hours.

WORKS DENIES IT.

Lewis R. Works, who will probably be retained as one of the attorneys for Anderson and Choate in case criminal or civil proceedings are instituted against them, made the statement yesterday that he had known of Lloyd's arrest until after the former police officer was in custody, and that he came downtown a little later. He said he read in Los Angeles papers today of the grand jury investigation and that he would be willing to testify to the truth of the matter and make inquiries as to the time he could catch a train when an office appeared.

Nicholson, referred to Queenie Nicholson, his bride of three weeks, as "the biggest liar I ever met."

Asked as to the truth of her statements to the effect that he and Arlington had shown her money which they said was given to them through the Mayor's office, Nicholson branded it as a "dirty lie."

"She told me I had better tell the straight story of the affair and I told her I would," said Nicholson. "Now this is true and this ought to be proof that I was not paid for the Lloyd affair," said Nicholson.

"That is no proof at all," remarked Arlington. "Of course, it is true, but you had been drinking and you had turned the same trick."

Chief of Police Ross telephoned to police headquarters in Los Angeles this afternoon that he had the two men and was informed that an officer would arrive at 11:15 tonight to take charge of them.

There is no felony charge against the two men and having no warrant Chief Ross would not lock them up, but detained them in his office. At dinner time he took them to a nearby cafe. They enjoyed their meal and said they would willingly go back to Los Angeles to appear before the grand jury.

"We believe and feel that the incumbent, C. E. Sebastian, who was promoted to his high office from our ranks, has been steadfastly loyal to the members of this department and, being so, has been loyal to the public and to himself."

"He has brought harmony and unity of action and purpose to a police department that has been torn by known more or less of factional fights and jealousies. His service to us is a large and steady, rapid and loyal and the respect of every member of the department."

"Therefore, he is received."

"The members of the police department of the city of Los Angeles, hereby endorse and heartily commend the course of action taken by Chief of Police C. E. Sebastian in refusing to permit or countenance outside interference in the management of this police department."

talked freely of the mainstrom in Los Angeles politics, but both entered emphatic denials to charges that they had been paid money for their part in the transaction. Nicholson asserted that he and Arlington left Los Angeles Sunday afternoon of their own volition, that no one had paid their fares and no one had suggested that they get out of town.

"The truth of the matter is that we were tired of being hounded by the reporters and officers," said Nicholson. "We simply came here to get away from the activity and get a little rest."

AN OLD INDIAN REMEDY

S. S. S. is one of the oldest of medicines; it was prepared and used by the Indian Medicine Man hundreds of years ago in the treatment of all blood disorders. Of course it did not then bear its present name, but the formula for compounding it was just what it is today, and its results then as now, are entirely satisfactory to those who use it. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks without the addition of a particle of mineral. It is the widest known and the best acting blood purifier before the public today. This great remedy cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Specific Blood Poison and any and all blood infections and impurities. No one need fear to use S. S. S. It is perfectly safe for any system, and its fine vegetable tonic effects especially recommend it to all weak, debilitated persons who may be in need of a blood purifier. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison from the blood. S. S. S. acts most pleasantly and beneficially on the stomach, assists in toning up the digestive members, and contributes in every way to the blessing of strong robust health. Write for free book on the blood and any medical advice you wish. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.
